Beginning of Year Means Dreams

REGISTRATION: Andy Collins and her mother confer with Mr. Pickett and Mrs. Twitty during summer registration. Also Shown is Paul Bragg in conversation with Mr. Bouche, vocational counselor.

CONFERENCE: Gary Wright discusses a homework assignment with senior English teacher, Mr. Anthony Perez.

BOOK BLUES: Mike Trinidad and Clay Harrison take a breather from handing out books at registration.

BOOK COVERS: Getting help from her sister, Rosie Dominguez joins Vivian Banta and Phillip Andrade in covering her books.

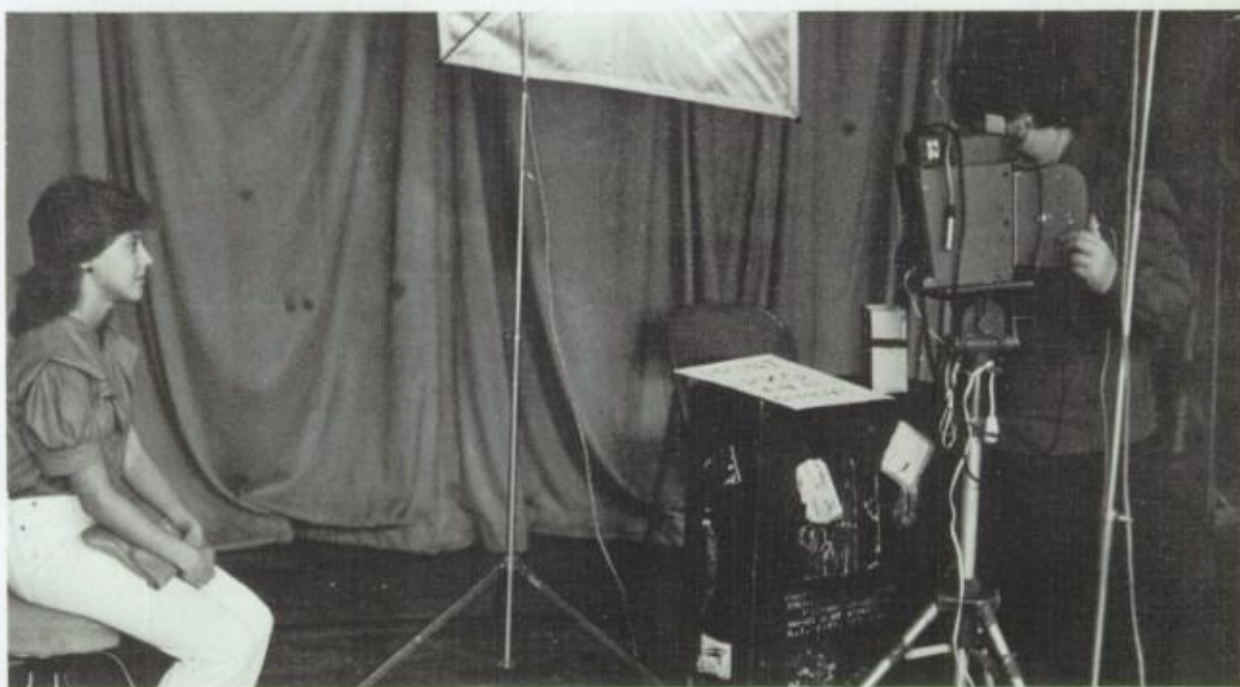

ID CARDS: Robert Molina and David Cenicerros wait while Susanna Tarango and Becky Watson make their ID cards.

As each class graduates from Parkland High, the school and the members of that particular class have changed.

They've grown up together. They've matured. And for the most part, all have profited from the experiences they have shared.

School has given all of us our "Memories of Yesterday and Dreams of Tomorrow." School helps us weave the dreams of our futures. We learn to gain confidence in ourselves by building on past experience; to follow scientific methods of trial and error; to find the necessary sources of all kinds of information, material and help that we never knew existed.

School makes us rely on ourselves for decisions. We find out that we are responsible for the decisions once we have made them and we learn to accept that responsibility. We learn that we pay the consequences for wrong decisions, but that we also get credit for our successes.

Of Success in Sports, Academics

MORNING MUSIC: It's not just the early bird that rises with the sun. Mr. Bolender and Drum Majors Lisa Bonneau and Delray Peebles serenaded the neighborhood early each morning during marching season as they got the Matador Band into shape.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Mrs. Martinez's Modern Dance Class gets ready for surprise birthday greetings for Miss Gil.

PEDAGOGUE: Mrs. Behra reads from the Spanish Textbook as she shows her students a variety of language skills.

FOOTBALL FUN: New freshman coach, Victor Smith watches the ninth graders during an early fall workout. Coach Barreras and Coach Smith had the job of teaching their team the fundamentals of football the Matador way.

School helps us to have pride. We begin to take pride in our work. It can be a composition for English, a part in a play. It might be a Chemistry experiment, a woodworking project, or a new dress made in homemaking. But it is ours, and we are proud of our accomplishments.

Then we learn to temper that pride with humility. It is the humility of realizing how little we have learned in the scope of all that it still to be discovered.

For some of us, dreams of making new discoveries, of developing new products, of find new cures for human problems, or of designing things to make life easier urge us on to new avenues of learning, and to higher education at colleges and universities.

Others plan careers in fields which won't necessarily require advanced education, but demand job experience and years of training for advancement. Still others will enter military and government service.

Spring '83 Events Now Memories;

MARDI GRAS: Christine Szeredy and John Cenieros ham it up in costume during the foreign language celebration.

TIME OUT: Barry Patterson was one of the coaches for the junior class Powder Puff Football Team. During a time out, he tries to get the squad fired-up against the Seniors who went on to win it 12-6.

REFRESHMENT HONORS: Denise Seward and Yvonne Veilleux serve refreshments during the NHS reception.

RECITAL READINESS: One of the highlights of the spring season is always the annual Modern Dance Recital. Under the direction of Mrs. Martinez, the dancers continued a tradition of excellence in last year's show.

We make lasting friendships while in high school. We become friends and confidants, sharing our fun, building memories together. We'll draw on those memories later, when life seems tough, or we get lonely.

We'll only have to drift back in memory to conjure up scenes of Pep Rallies where we acted crazily; dances that we hated ending; songs that carried special meanings; all the fun at games and car washes; and selling, selling, selling; raising money for trips, equipment, uniforms, and all kinds of things.

We'll remember many things: the fun we had in class when our work was done; group projects, shared lab tables, choosing teams; the weakening of our knees and knots in our throats when we were called on and we weren't prepared.

HONORS INDUCTION: A special Honors Day Assembly brought together students from all departments to be recognized for their outstanding accomplishments. The assembly, hosted by National Honor Society was a huge success.

Matadors Turn to Fall Projects

SPIRITED MATADOR: While George the mascot of the flags doesn't exactly go beep, beep, the girls love him.

HOLD ON: Andy Collins became the proud owner of a birthday balloon bouquet, courtesy of ZORRO.

SURPRISE, SURPRISE: Yvonne Breeze and Aurelia Cole lead the festivities at a surprise birthday party for Miss Gil.

BIG FANS: Becky Watson and Susanna Tarango always came up with fresh ideas for their pep rally costumes.

THE EYES HAVE IT: Aurelia Cole, Michele Layne, and Carla Jones got Bug-Eyed with pride over their classes' efforts to win the spirit stick at the Riverside pep rally. The Senior Class won another spirit stick for this one.

We'll remember the pride we developed over the years. "WE'RE THE MATADORS, AND COULDN'T BE PROUDER" is a phrase we'll never forget. And when we come to parkland again at Homecoming, or look through this yearbook, we'll remember that teary-eyed feeling we got whenever we sang "From the fields of the lower valley, to the slopes of Mount Franklin's Crest," the words from our beloved alma mater.

And we'll recall the tremendous burst of pride and energy we felt when the band played our fight song. Surely some of us will hope that our children will have similar experiences, will develop similar pride, memories, dreams.

Fads, Fashions Appear, Disappear,

SIXTIES STYLES: Susanna Tarango models her Sixties Outfit, the latest trend at that time.

SIDE VIEW: Becky Watson shows what was "In" in hair styles in the 60's.

DUCKS: The LOOK from the sixties for boys was ducks, slicked down and "Cool".

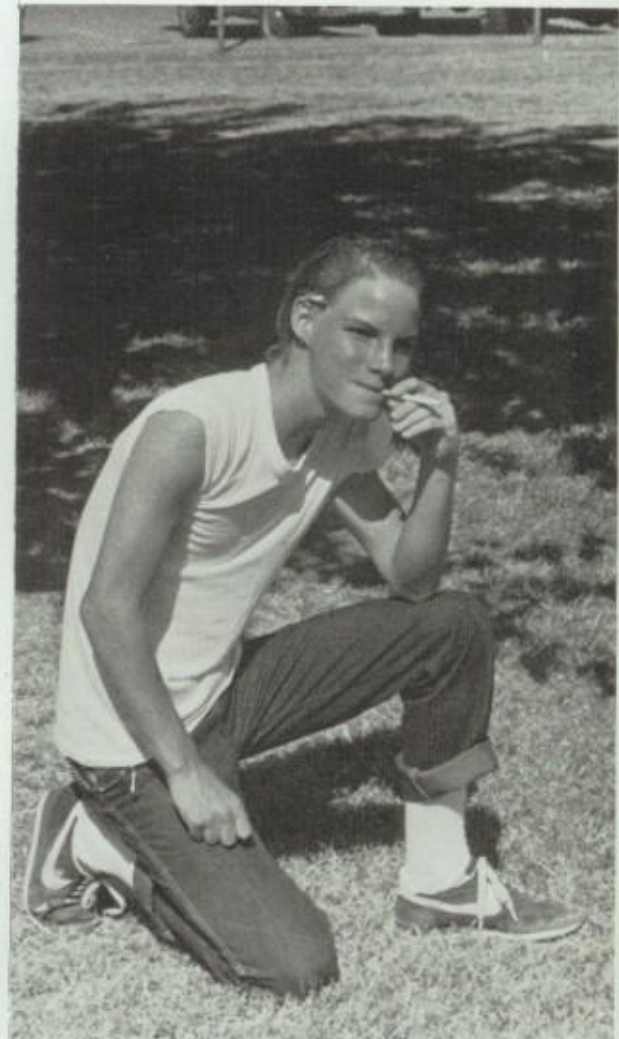

After we're gone from Parkland, our accomplishments will still be on record. But we'll remember many of them without having to search those records.

We'll remember our pride when our teams, classmates, friends won, accomplished, succeeded at their individual and group efforts.

We'll recall Christine Szeredy, National Merit Scholarship Semi-finalist; Carol Camacho, Homecoming Queen; Drum Majors Delray Peebles and Lisa Bonneau; Cheerleaders, Team Captains, Singers, Dancers, winners of all kind.

We'll remember our disappointments too. We'll remember our resentment at the slurs of other schools about our size; the tough-going we faced against much larger schools in all kinds of events from sports to literary.

We'll remember events we gave our all to, only to come away defeated, beaten.

ALA JAMES DEAN: Johnny Deal gives a James Dean look from the sixties, slicked hair, and rolled up sleeves.

ROLL 'EM UP: To be in with the fad, your jeans had to be rolled up several times as Walter Chaidemenos shows.

BUBBLE GUM AND BOBBY SOX: Made the uniform complete, as Becky Watson shows her outfit from the past.

Change with New Student Groups

THE NOW LOOK: Angie Medrano provides a striking contrast to the Sixties look in her stylish '80's outfit.

HAIR TODAY: Gone tomorrow? This style, modeled by Marissa Martinez, may disappear like many others.

LIGHT AND NATURAL: Scott Jones' hairstyle illustrates the natural look of the 80's.

CONTRASTING STYLES: Fred Hamilton gives us a look at boys' Fashions of the 80's.

DOTS AND CHECKBOARDS: Modern mixes of dots, checkerboards and other fashion fads are modeled by Robert Rivera.

Most of all, we'll probably remember the work. We'll remember hours of research, term papers, equations in math and chemistry we thought we'd never solve. We'll think about verbs and conjugations, vocabulary. We'll recall the smells in science labs, homemaking, crafts. We'll remember singing, playing, practicing, exercising, marching.

We'll remember almost getting a hundred, and hassles in the attendance office; using the pay phone and waiting in lines. We'll think about movies and slide shows, SAC, assemblies, earning a letter, getting the diploma.

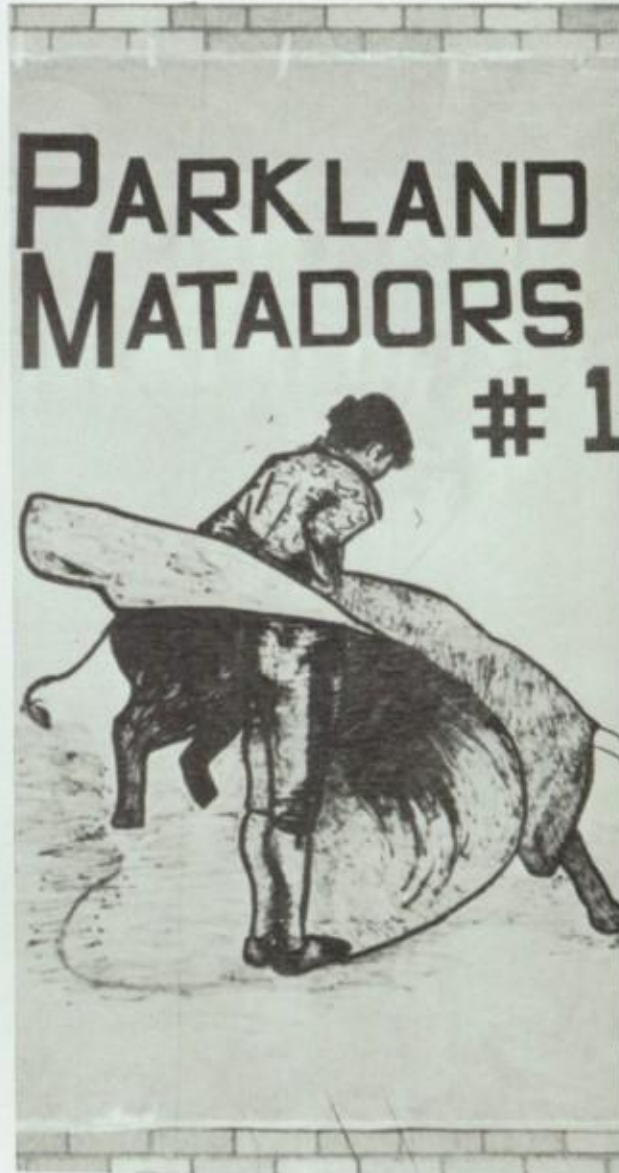

In this yearbook, we have tried to capture some of these memories. We have tried to help you in your quest of dreams for tomorrow. We hope these pages reflect the part of your high school experiences that you want to keep and the faces of friends that you want to remember.

COLORS AND COORDINATES: Jodi Koss helps complete a look at fashions of today with her attractive outfit.

HONORS

Each year a number of honors are bestowed on Parkland students. Homecoming and Military Ball Queens, Most Beautiful, Most Handsome, and Mr. and Miss Parkland are titles which PHS students earn.

Each department nominates who's Who Candidates based upon outstanding work by students in that department. Also chosen are the Outstanding Parkland Girl and Outstanding Parkland Boy who are most representative of the student body.

Delray, Mary, Mr., Miss Parkland

Senior class members voted Delray Peebles and Mary McKinley Mr. and Miss Parkland for 1984. The honor goes to the two seniors as being most representative of their graduating class.

An active member of his class, Delray has been Drum Major, Band president, and a member of the all-region, all-area choirs.

In addition to winning the title Mr. Parkland, Delray was voted Most Likely to Succeed by his classmates.

Mary McKinley is also very active in her class. As a senior she was elected president of the National Honor Society. She received the 1983 Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award.

Mary was an active member of the student council and a member of the Varsity Tennis Team.

The titles Mr. and Miss Parkland represent the highest tributes members of the senior class can pay to their fellow students.

Faculty Chooses Most Outstanding

Members of the faculty chose Christine Szeredy Most Outstanding Girl for 1984.

Christine was freshman valedictorian; a member of Foreign Language Club; Art club president; and secretary of the National Honor Society.

Christine also received the D.A.R. American History Award; was named to Honor District Choir, All-Region Choir, and was a National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test Semi-Finalist.

She has been a member of the library club; is one of the top five members of her graduating class; and was named to Who's Who for English.

Christine was elected Most Likely to Succeed by the members of the senior class. She plans to pursue the fields of Special Education and Psychology.

Delray Peebles was chosen Most Outstanding Boy for 1984. Among his activities, Delray has been a member of the National Honor Society.

He has been the Library Club vice-president; Foreign Language Club president; Band president; and Drum Major.

He participated in the all-region choir; received the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test Commendation; and was a representative to Boys State.

Delray attended the University of Texas at El Paso summer Engineering Institute.

The seniors voted Delray Most Likely to Succeed.

Delray's plans include the pursuit of the study of Music and Computer Science.

Webb, Quisenberry Honored;

We fondly dedicate the 1983 ARENA to Mrs. Maurine Webb. Mrs. Webb, who has been at Parkland since 1970, has been a wonderful friend to her students, and a tribute to her profession. We hope Mrs. Webb gets back all the love she has given to her students.

MRS. MAURINE WEBB crafts teacher, holds a Bachelor of Arts and Science degree from the University of San Antonio.

CRAFTS CLASS FUN: Mrs. Webb demonstrates the art of paper sculpturing to two of her students, Barbara Brooks and Danielle Daglieri. The crafts class studies many different creative techniques under her guidance.

A POINT OF LAW: Mr. Quisenberry removes his glasses as he attempts to explain one of the complex operations of our government during a lecture. Students in government learn from him that there is more to government than meets the eye.

MR. CHARLES QUISENBERRY: has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Louisville, and his Masters Degree from UTEP.

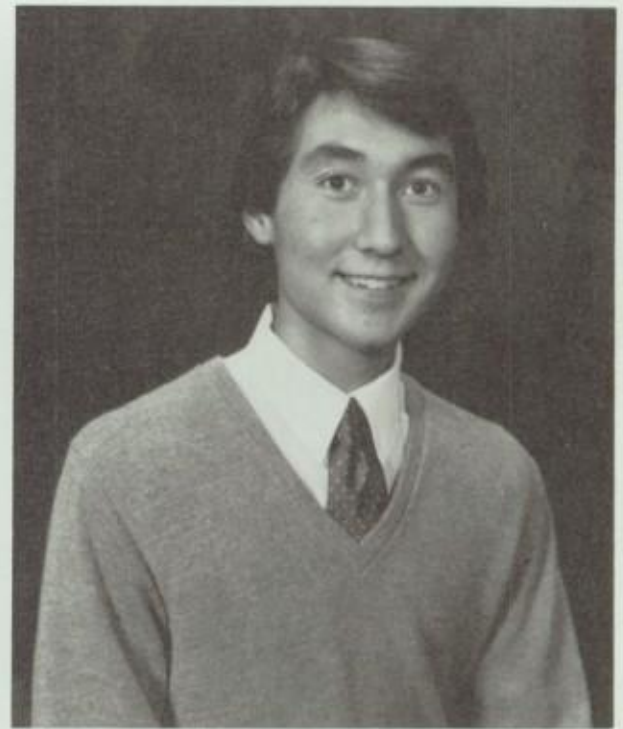

Mr. Charles Quisenberry is a favorite among teachers of senior students. Although he has only been at Parkland for three years, he has shown students here that he cares about their interests and needs. It is with pride that we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Quisenberry.

Most Handsome Boy

ACE ATHLETES: It is customary for the Parkland Coaches to choose two students each year, a boy and a girl, who are the most representative of the PHS Athletic Department. This year they selected Linda Davis (above) and Alex Darley (below).

Linda played four years of Volleyball and four years of Basketball while attending Parkland. Alex participated for three years each in Football, Basketball and Track.

Both of them are to be congratulated for their contributions to the school's athletic programs.

Most Handsome Boy—Glen Hines

Most Popular Girl

Lisa Bonneau was chosen by the senior class as the Most Popular Girl for 1984. Lisa was a freshman class officer, drum major of the band, and a member of the National Honor Society.

She was elected Lady-In-Waiting to this year's homecoming court.

Most Handsome

Seniors voted Glen Hines Most Handsome Boy for this year. While at Parkland, Glen has been involved in Letterclub, Track, Football and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He was chosen Senior Silhouette for the cutest smile.

Most Popular Boy

Barry Patterson won the Most Popular Boy contest in senior balloting. Barry has been an Optimist Youth Award winner in his freshman and junior years. He has participated in Football, Track, Golf, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was also chosen Senior Class Favorite. He was vice-president of student council and president of Letterclub.

1983-84 Teams Pick Sweethearts

Javier Macias: Volleyball

Sheila Miles: Baseball

Steve Vejil: Girls Basketball

Mary McKinley: Golf

Sweets For The Sweet: For each team, there was a special someone who sparkled up their games. These students encouraged the teams by attending all of the games and showed their interest and support all through the season.

Karen Tatsuhara: Boys Basketball

SPORTS

Matador Sports covers a range of activities from football and volleyball to basketball, baseball and track. All team-type events. But it also includes gymnastics, golf, tennis, cross country running.

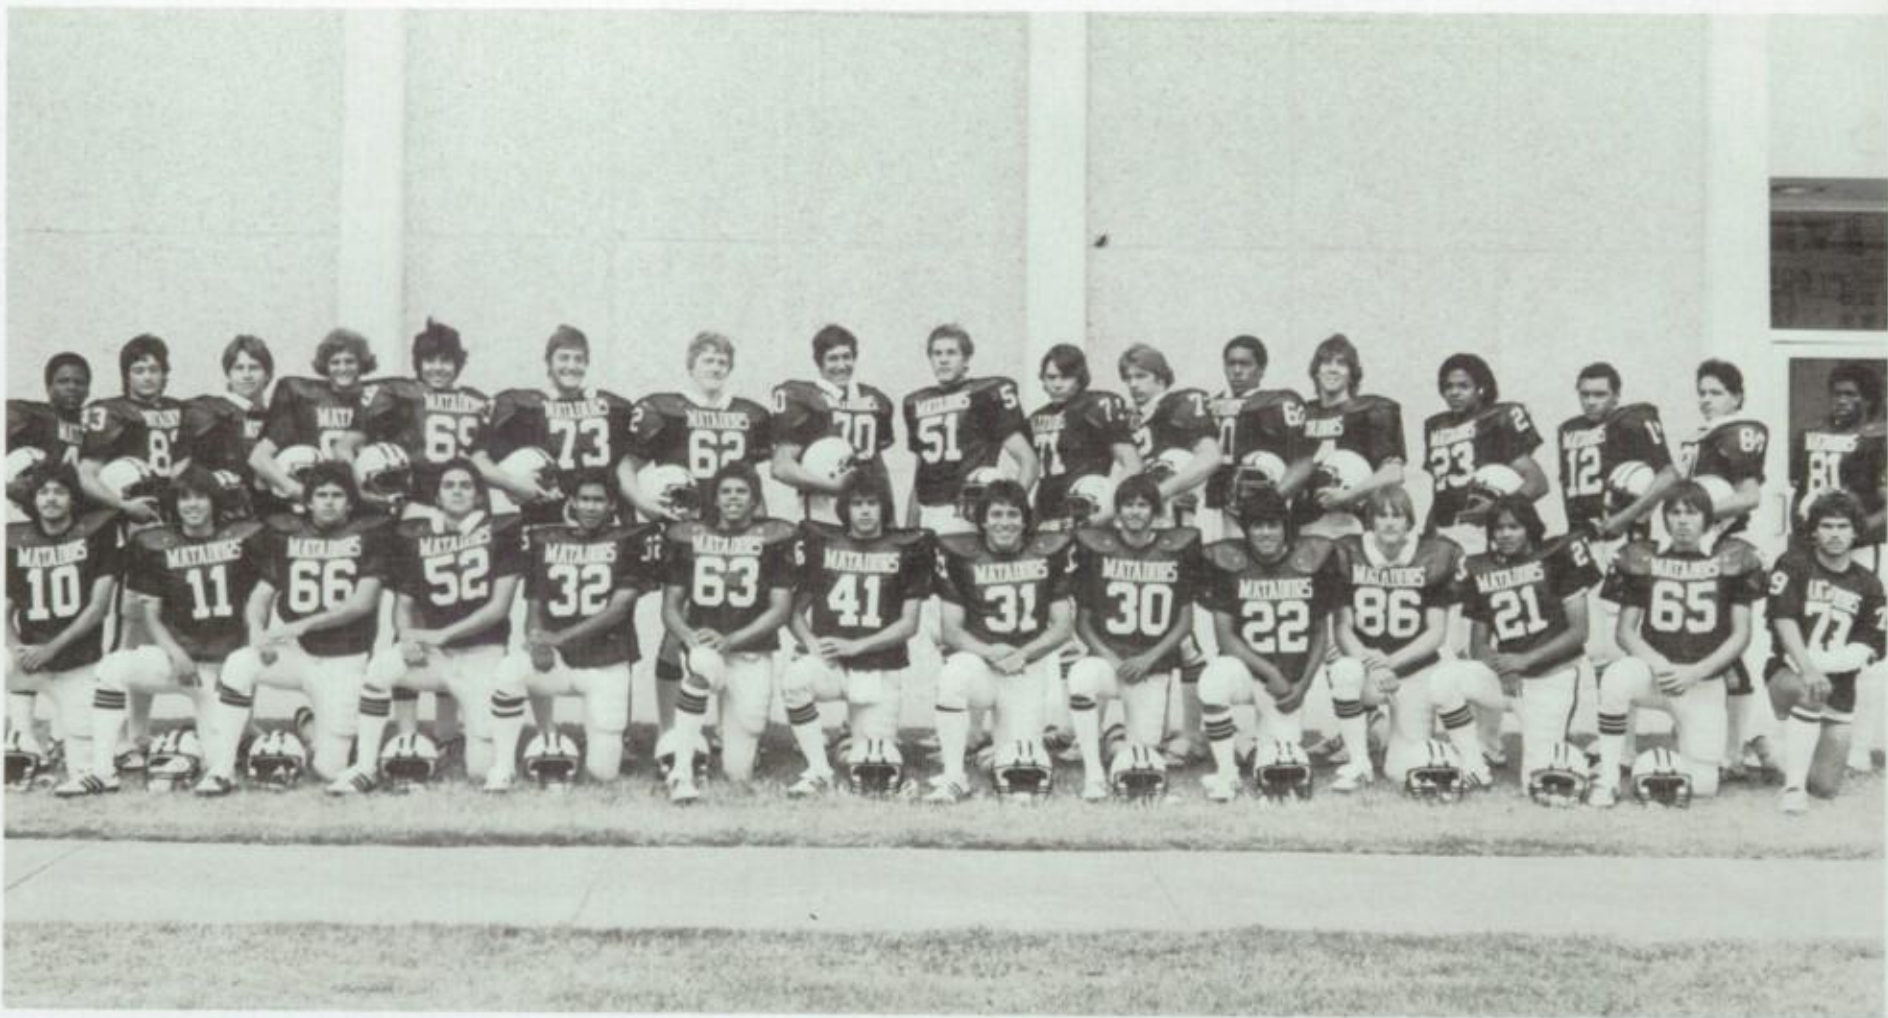

Condition, training, preparing for individual sports is a year-round process. The weight room, stadium, track and gym are hardly ever empty. Girls' programs are on a par with the boys, and the enthusiasm with which Parkland athletes approach their sports is a credit to the school and coaches.

1983-84 Varsity Football Record 2-6

Under new head coach, Ron Hernandez, the Matadors suffered a season opening loss to Andress, 41-15. Parkland's two touchdowns came on a 16-yard run by Robert Rivera and an 18-yard pass from Edwin Cartagena to Alex Darley.

The season brightened when the Mats beat Cathedral 20-14. Cartagena threw to Darley for a 29-yard score in the first half. The other two scores came on runs by Cartagena and by Barry Patterson.

Barry Patterson's one-yard run accounted for the lone score against the Ysleta Indians as the Matadors lost their district 2-5A opener to Ysleta 21-7. One of the highlights of the game was a fumble recovery by Keith Montalbano in the 2nd quarter.

Against Riverside, Darley suffered several interceptions and the Rangers got two points on a safety. But Cartagena connected with Darley for six points and Keith Montalbano added the extra point to make the final score 16-7.

District Champion, Eastwood blanked Parkland 41-0, limiting the Matadors to six first downs, eleven yards rushing and only 102 yards passing.

In the last three games of the season Parkland suffered two defeats and won their homecoming game. The Matadors scared Bel Air, intercepting the Highlander quarterback twice, and holding the Scotties to seven points. Coach Hernandez praised the squad noting they had been outmatched and outmanned, but gave a good fight. Score was Bell Air 7, Parkland 0.

A fired up Hanks Knight team dumped the Mats 46-14 gaining over 500 yards total rushing.

The highlight of the season was Parkland's Homecoming win over Socorro 24-21. The victory made the season record 2-6.

THE LONG WALK: Members of the varsity squad take the long walk from the locker room to their benches just before the start of the game between Parkland and Andress.

STRATEGY: Coach Kelly talks to varsity players during a time out.

Matadors Face Tough 2-5A Contests;

TOUCHDOWN!: The Matadors show a lot of enthusiasm after scoring a touchdown against the Ysleta Indians in a district game held at Ysleta's stadium.

Coach Hernandez gives the team a pep talk before the game.

Once again the Matador football team faced some tough odds when the '83-'84 football season began. The smallest squad in district 2-5A soon gained a reputation for having an excellent defense and a surprising offense as well. Although they came up on the short end of the score against Ysleta, Riverside and Eastwood, the games could have gone in favor of the Matadors at any time.

SCRAMBLE FOR THE BALL: A host of Indians and Matadors try to pounce on a loose ball at the Ysleta game.

Fall to Bigger District Opponents

GO FOR IT: Fred Glasgow tries for a touchdown against Riverside.

PUNT FORMATION: Keith Montalbano punts the ball away.

TOUGH DEFENSE: The Matadors held Bel Air to seven points. Here the defense keys on an up-coming Bel Air play.

QUARTERBACK DILEMMA: Edwin Cartegena got an unpleasant surprise from these two troopers who sacked him.

After a year's experience under new head coach Ronnie Hernandez, the Matadors should be a lot stronger in district 2-5A next year.

Commenting about the squad, Coach Hernandez said, "We are very fortunate this year in being able to play a lot of kids who'll be back next year. These young players have shown a lot of improvement in the past three months."

Matadors Down Cathedral 20-14;

DEFENSE, DEFENSE: A group of Matador defenders attempt to stop a drive by the Ysleta Indians backfield crew.

TD ATTEMPT: Barry Patterson attempts to score for the Mats.

BIG TACKLE: Mark Mietlinski leads a defensive play.

Three Varsity Players Selected

Varsity volleyball team members were a dedicated and enthusiastic group who ended their season with a 20-9 record, good enough for the 3rd place position in district.

A first for the group was the winning of two pre-season tournaments and finishing third in another. Under the direction of Coach Kevin Joyce, the group provided a challenge to all district and non-district competitor and a lot of excitement to Parkland fans. Key ingredients were concentration and determination.

To All-District/All-City Teams

Cindy Sutton
All-District 2nd Team

The B-Team volleyball girls provided a lot of fast and furious action this season. And although their season record was 7-12, the team stuck together to try to overcome their shortcomings and keeping spirits high.

Coach Perez, commenting on the season said, "The girls never played up to their potential. They were better than they played as their victory over Hanks clearly showed."

SETTING HIGH: Rosario Martinez shows good form.

Freshmen volleyball finished 3-13 this season. Their record doesn't reflect the potential this team had. According to one of the coaches, the team was encouraged to play a style of volleyball that normal freshmen teams don't achieve. Coach Lubbers teaches his team to play with intensity and to use good techniques which will benefit them as they advance to higher teams.

Cross Country Teams Gain Strength;

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM: Row 1: Arla Johnson, Gary Vasquez, Theresa Albarran, Paul Cenicerros, Brian Orwig, Donny Miller, and Annette Lial. Row 2: Patrick Porter, Mary Perry, Rosanne Provencio, Trisa Clark, Mark Harris, and Kim Castillo. Row 3: Laura Breeze, Alma Alvarez, Thomasina Russ, Donna Warner, Steve Breeze, Hector Pacheco, Rhonda Russ, Robert Francis, Charles Dixon, Jennell Seward, Jean Jones, and Mark Barrera

FINISHING UP: Steve Breeze and Patrick Porter finish a run.

Cross country runners battle the elements. They contend with weather, rough terrain, and a large number of fellow contestants. The Matador team, coached by Mr. Leon Wade has gained both numbers and experience, and continues to place higher in meets as the seasons progress.

CHECKING TIMES: Coach Wade checks runners and times during preparation for a meet at Acarate Park.

Freshmen Girls Win District

DISTRICT WINNERS: Rhonda Russ, Rosanne Provencio, Theresa Albarran, Kim Castillo, and Laura Breeze.

MR. LEON WADE, CROSS COUNTRY COACH

STUDENT LIFE

When the staff refers to Student Life, they mean all the activities which make up a school day. It involves coming to school, opening lockers, heading for class, and all the things that happen everyday here at Parkland.

There are so many things Parkland Students do each day that it would be impossible to capture all of them. We hope that the pictures in this section remind you of your day, your year, or your career as a student here.

EDITORS AND CONTRIBUTORS

Bonnie Martinez
Donna Dungan
Bobby Broadstreet

PEP RALLIES: One of the special events for all students was enthusiastic participation at pep rallies as shown here by senior class members trying for another spirit stick.

Activities Show Parkland Pride;

DECA president, Rudy Martinez helps a new initiate get ready.

Student life at Parkland is filled with all kinds of activities from assemblies to dances. The in-class and out-of-class special things that students are involved in make the memories we'll take with us when we leave our school. In this section we hope to present a cross-section of those activities.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE: Band member Andy Collins received a birthday bouquet of balloons from none other than Zorro.

Assemblies Promote School Spirit

DRESS-UP: Two of the most-spirited Matadors at pep-rallies are Becky Watson and Susanna Tarango shown throwing confetti.

Gymnast, Carol Camacho, "Hangs Around" during class.

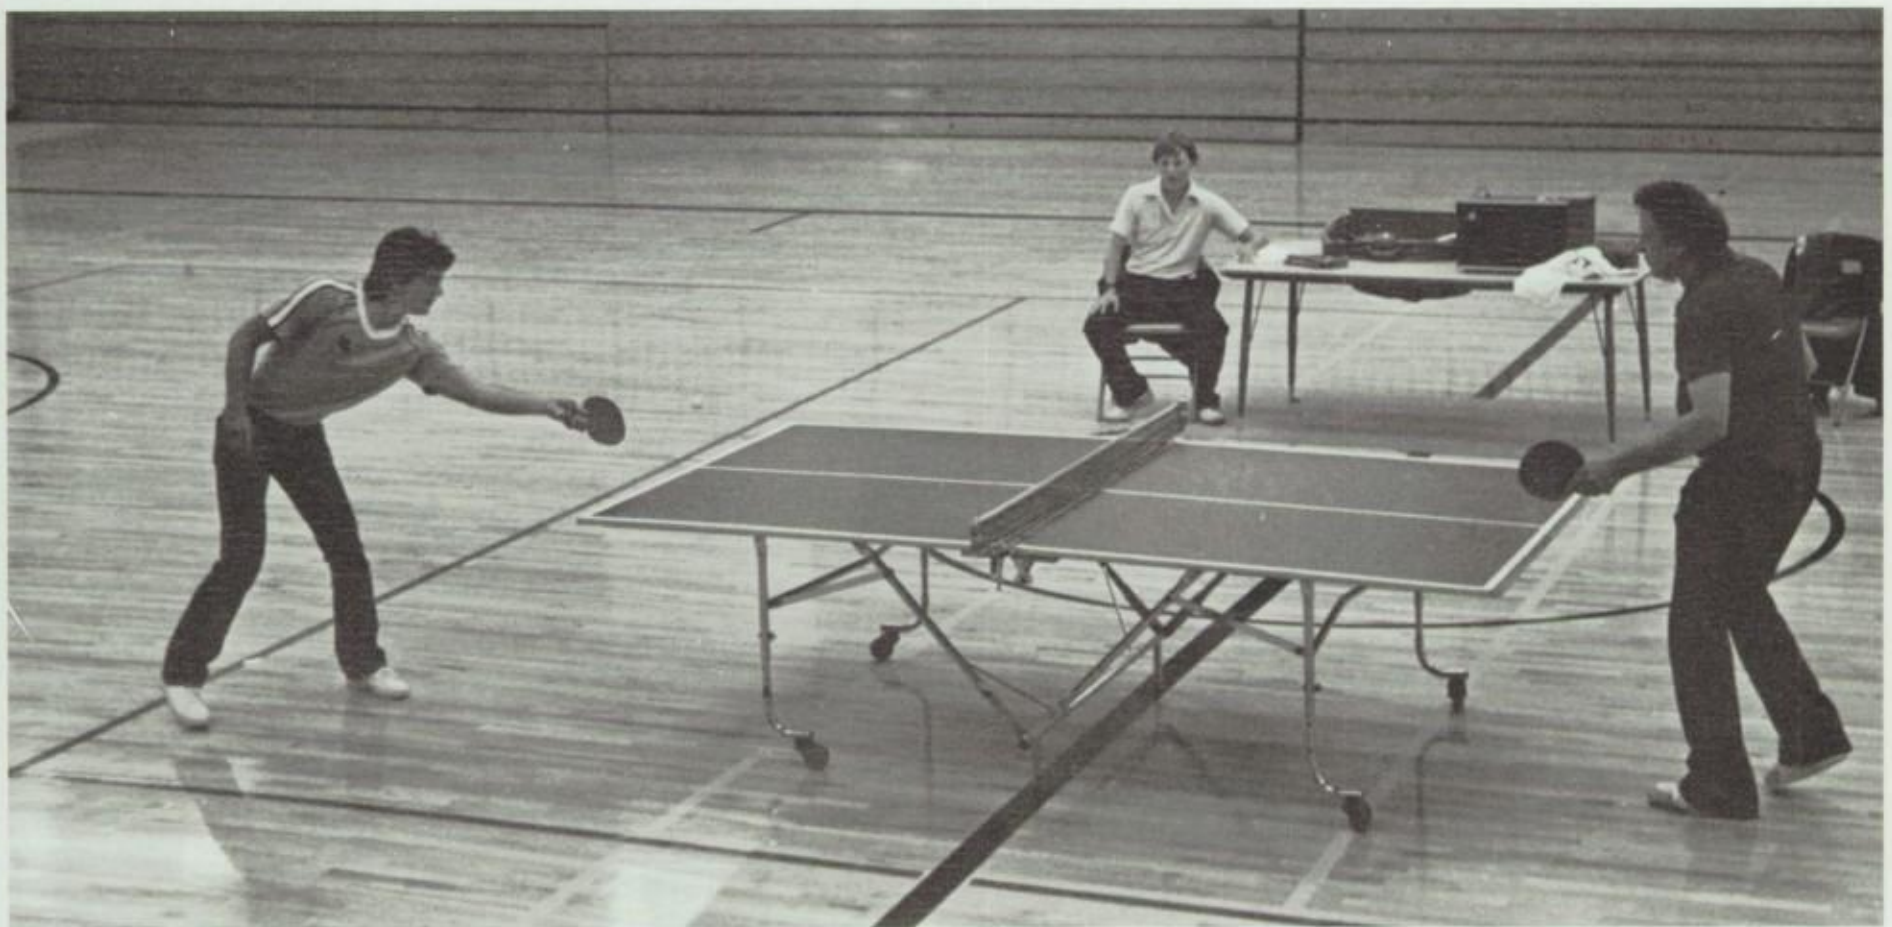

TABLE TENNIS CHAMPS: Keith Montalbano gets a chance to beat a world champion at table tennis during the first paid assembly program of the year.

Classroom Capers, to After-School

CHECK IT OUT: Christine Szeredy acts out a part in VAMPIRE IN THE STACKS, the library club's video tape training program for freshmen.

VICTORY: Paul Cenicerros gives a demonstration of brute strength as he pins Coach Barreras in arm wrestling.

A LITTLE THIN: Adrian Maskill, Mark Nelon and Laurie Hollenback show their sympathy for their skinny friend.

Activities Keep Matadors Busy

MATADOR WELCOME: A Parkland run-through sign awaits members of the Varsity team at the Bel Air game.

FABULOUS FACE: Mr. Quisenberry, a man of many faces.

OUTSIDE WANTING IN?: Freshmen think the view is better out here.

BALLOON BRIGADE: Impersonating a Playboy Bunny, this young lady delivered a balloon bouquet and a kiss to Coach Joyce.

Bumper Stickers, Octoberfest

BUCKLE UP: Anne Bennett attaches a Buckle Up Bumper Sticker on a car as part of student council's drive.

BOOTS & HATS: Robert Broadstreet shows one style worn by a number of Parkland students.

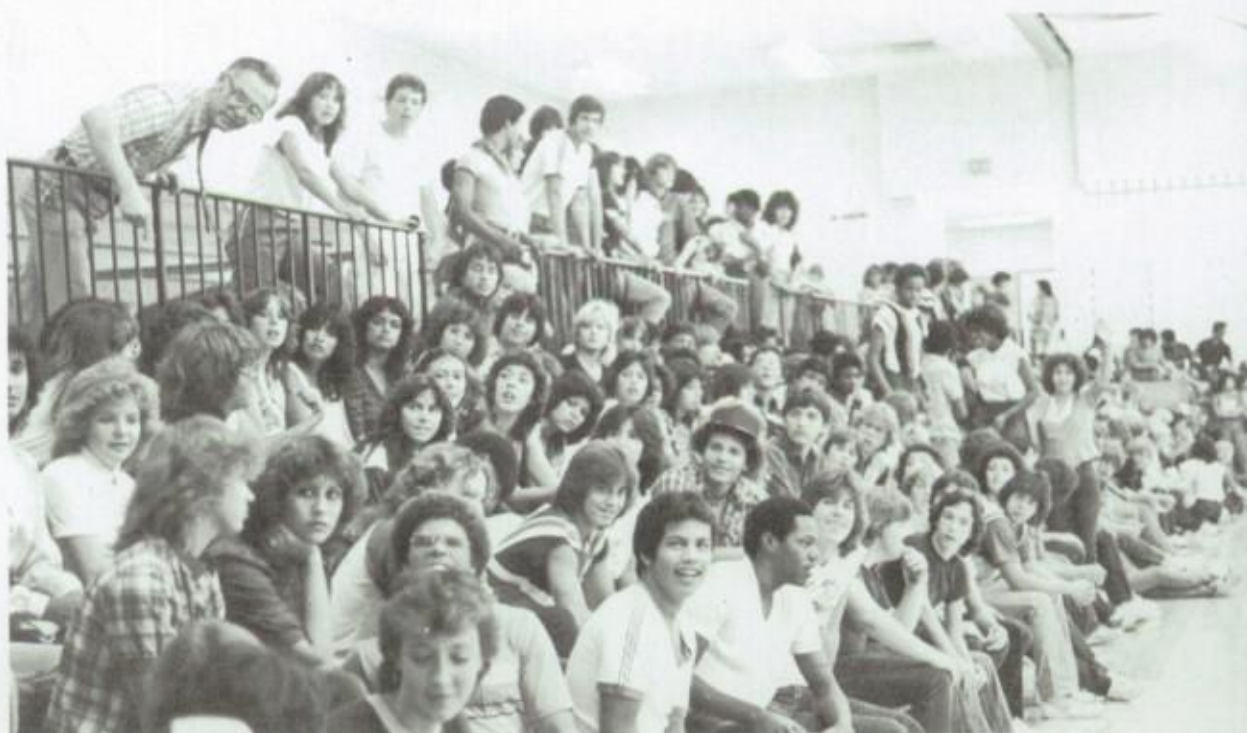

PUNCH AND COOKIES: Becky Andrews and Tandra Spate get refreshments at the Octoberfest.

There are a lot of fall activities which make being a Matador fun. Whether it's attaching bumper stickers to cars for the student council, or watching professional Ping Pong players at a paid assembly, it's fun.

From pep assemblies to dramatic productions, there is something to interest Matador students. As seen by these photos, a lot of them have found out how much fun it is.

OCTOBERFEST: Mrs. Behra and members of Foreign Language Club celebrated the German holiday, Octoberfest.

PING PONG ASSEMBLY: This is just part of the crowd that followed the bouncing ball at a paid assembly.

Included in Fall Schedule

WAYWARD SAINTS: Kami Hookano is downstage during a rehearsal of A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS in the drama room.

GOING TO CLASS: Andy Collins and Veronica Ramirez.

ID PHOTOS: Mike Nunez photographs Robert Francis.

SENIOR SPIRIT: Senior football players join their cheerleaders to help win the spirit stick once again.

Students Create Colorful Costumes

BALLET ANYONE?: Adrienne Rush uses the phone on dress-up day.

GUESS WHO: It would be hard to recognize Andy Collins behind her Halloween costume and mask.

Homecoming week was a lot of fun for the students who dressed up in different costumes every day. Since Halloween fell at the beginning of the week, it made the costumes even more exciting.

SWEET TOOTH: Ms Blankenship, HECE/HERO Sponsor, and Stephanie Sandoval conduct a drawing for a huge jar of M & M's.

FACE THE MUSIC: Choir members wore painted faces and masks on Halloween as a part of the Homecoming celebration.

PARTY TIME: Child Development class gave a party for elementary students. Here Donna Dungan serves refreshments to one of the youngsters.

TEACHER'S PET?: No, just Mrs. Martinez on costume day.

For Homecoming Week, Initiations

SING ALONG: Andy Collins, Billy Pendergraft and Jerry Hash entertain the Journalism Class while being initiated into Letter Club.

SIGN HERE: Robert Broadstreet carries his Matador Pride Sign.

INITIATES: Cyd Ballard, Veronica Ramirez, Jose Pena ham it up.

LOVE THAT DRESS: Rudy Martinez models his initiation costume.

CLASSROOM DRAMA: While Jimmy Kubinski and Steve Vejil watch, Barbara Provencio, and Michelle and Alicia Kohrs entertain.

DESIGNER BAGS? Andy Collins wore one of the most fashionable Initiation Designs this year for girls, plastic garbage bags.

Spring Semester Brings New Fun

"COKE IS IT": Cindi Givens and Carolyn King get a Coke to go with their lunch.

MEMORIES: Alex Darley and Yvonne Breeze exchange memory books and sign autograph pages.

COUNTING THE LOOT: Fred Lowenberg counts up the snack bar's receipts for the day.

1984 Senior Class

The senior class is always one of the most enthusiastic groups of students at any high school. Parkland seniors are no exception. They yell louder, work harder, study more than any of the other classes simply because they are seniors.

It won't be long before the seniors return as ex-students at homecoming. We know they left their mark on our school, and that like other classes before them, they left Parkland just a little better than when they found it. The Class of '84 will not be forgotten.

UNDERCLASSES

Waiting to become seniors, or just taking school one grade at a time, the Underclassmen make up the bulk of Parkland's population. It is from this class that many of the clubs, teams, musical groups and vocational programs get their members.

Underclass students work in labs, do research papers, learn computers, participate in athletics, ROTC, speech and drama. They are an energetic, enthusiastic group of students who are anxious to advance to senior status.

ACADEMICS

Education: Students seek it, and the faculty at Parkland helps provide it. In this section we have tried to show some of the activities which go on daily in classes at our school. Here are some of the classes, labs, field trips. We have tried to show students at work in the library, classrooms, and activities which lead them to graduation after a four-year course of study.

The Ysleta Independent School District's Board of Trustees worked faithfully with the administration and staff of Parkland High School to assure the success of its programs to educate our students. Many of the programs for the district were reviewed and either increased or eliminated to assist the schools in doing a better job.

The Parkland Yearbook Staff regrets we were unable to obtain a picture of newly elected School Board Member, Mr. Al "Tiny" Barcena.

This year saw a change of assistant principals at Parkland. Mr. Dan Gonzalez moved to Ysleta Vocational to become its first assistant principal, and Ms. Carol Allen took over the reins as assistant principal and director of student activities here. The change was a smooth one, and it wasn't long before all of the faculty and the students had become friends with her.

The people shown on these pages include the counselors and office personnel who help keep our school running smoothly. The student body depends on their help in so many situations, they could not possibly be listed here.

NEW ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL: Ms. Carol Allen chats briefly with yearbook staff member, Rafael Navarette. She joined the school shortly before homecoming in 1983.

Students Learn Self-Expression

FUTURE ARTIST?: Martin Macias shows deep concentration as he sketches a bowl of fruit during art class.

PAPER SCULPTURES: Veronica Jacquez, Peter Meyer, Elizabeth Lopez and Jimmy Fonseca construct paper sculptures.

DRAFTING: Troy Wells practices mechanical drawing.

For the artistic at heart, Parkland offers a variety of programs which allow self-expression. Art, Crafts, Drafting, Woodworking and other similar classes give students a chance to build, draw, construct, sculpture and paint. Serious art students can take advance classes and serious drafting students can involve themselves in contests, miniature home construction, and term projects.

STILL LIFE: David Nowell and David Gossage draw still life.

CALLIGRAPHER: Tony Francik works at neat lettering.

CERAMICS CHOICES: Mrs. Webb and Johnny Orta confer about the color choice for a piece of ceramics in crafts class.

In Arts, Crafts, P.E. Classes

CONCENTRATION: Patty Clannan practices bumping the ball.

PARADE REST: ROTC cadets stand easy as they await the team of Federal Inspectors at their annual inspection.

ATTENTION: The ROTC Staff inspects a cadet.

GO FOR IT: Steven Breeze heads for the finish line.

LET'S GET PHYSICAL: Coach Pennies provides supervision for his students involved in a weight program.

Plenty of physical activity is available for students in the PE and ROTC departments. Whether it's marching or running, lifting weights, or getting inspected, the programs provide a lot of interest to the physically active student.

Naturally, those who excel in ROTC get promoted to officer ranks. Those athletes who excel can go on to become members of teams to compete for the school.

Music-Related Subjects, History

SING ALONG: Christine Szeredy sings with the choir.

WARM UPS: Modern Dancers perform these stretching and conditioning exercises daily in Mrs. Martinez' class.

TWIRLING: Michelle Nunez twirls her cape at half-time.

Classes, classes, classes. There are all kinds of them at Parkland. Students can study music of all kinds, and music-related activities such as dance too. Band, choir and orchestra give students plenty of chances to tune, march, play, and perform.

History and government are two of the subjects which give students a look at our heritage. Much of it can be found in the library. Research papers, Supreme Court Case Studies and many other items of information are here.

HALFTIME SHOW: Lisa Bonneau and Wanda Grimes lead members of the marching band and flags during a halftime performance.

Provide Interesting Class Studies

IT'S IN THE BOOK: Says Coach Vanelly to Steve Alvarez.

CHECK IT OUT: Library club members gain experience in library work and assist the librarians as Christine Szeredy shows here.

MAP STRATEGY: Mr. Quinsberry points out the Island of Grenada to Brian Bramer as they discuss U.S. Foreign Policy.

BREAK TIME: Robert Rosado takes a break while others in class continue to study their American History lesson.

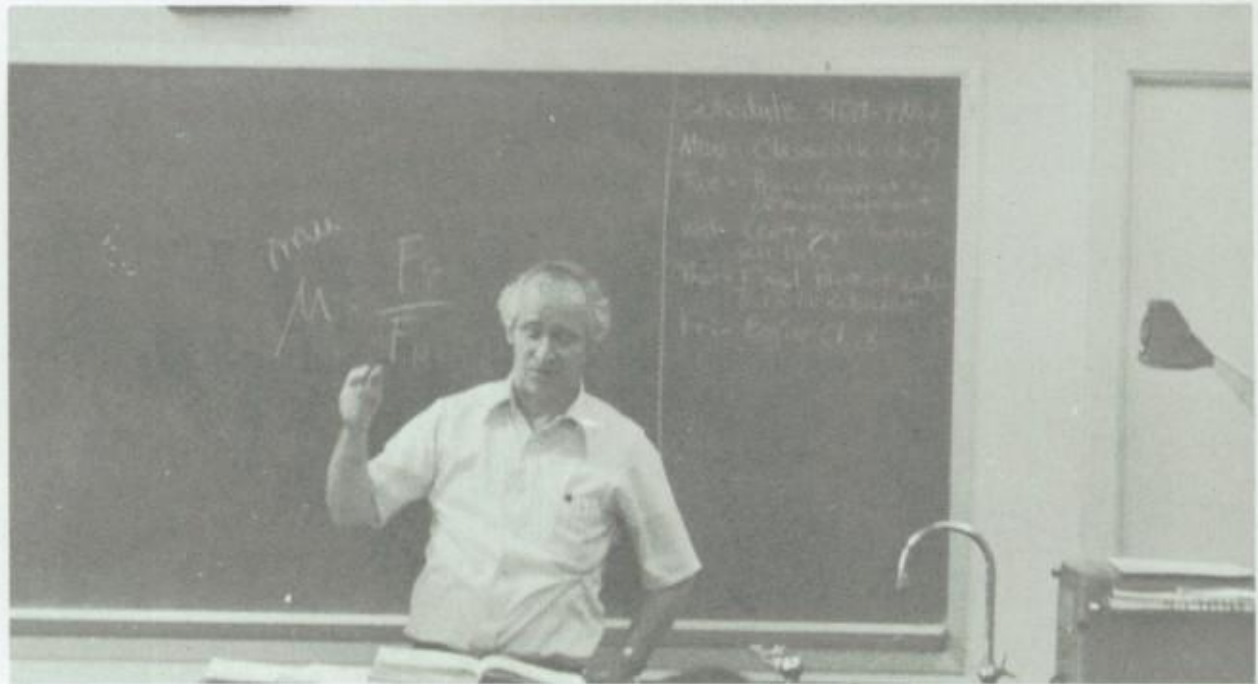

TESTS: Anne Bennett and Dale Wilson complete a test.

Math, Science Tease Minds;

EXPERIMENTING: Glen Lang and Rick Gutierrez study reactions.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING: Mr. Mott explains that Newton's law of relativity doesn't refer to someone's relatives.

PRETENDING: Hyue Mi McLeod pretends to study for a test.

SHOWING: Mark Sullivan identifies an artery in the thigh.

TELLING: Coach Barreras illustrates a pressure point.

HELPED: Mr. Carrasco looks over the shoulder of Gina Briones as she works on an Algebra problem in class.

Students Learn Vocational Skills

CAR PROBLEMS: Jeremiah Jones and Jerry Little fix an engine.

MASTERING: Eddie Jurado tries to master typing skills under the direction of Mrs. Perez.

PROBLEM SOLVING: Karen Layne and Mrs. Lola Paine attempt to solve a problem related to Vocational Office Education.

Math, Sciences, Vocational Education all have a place in the Parkland High curriculum. Students get the opportunity to experience everything from Physical Science to Physics; from Fundamental Math to Calculus. They can use everything from computers to word processors; learn mechanics or drafting. Office procedures, woodworking and many other subjects are available for anyone interested.

Language Arts Classes, Drama,

BEHIND THE SCENES: Journalism students got a look at how the news is put together when they visited the facilities of KTSM Radio-TV during a field trip.

REHEARSAL: Yvonne Alvarez and Kami Hookano act out a scene from the fall production of A COMPANY OF WAYWARD SAINTS.

EXAM INTENSITY: Members of an English class try to avoid looking at the photographer as they concentrate on their test.

TERM PAPERS: Rene Hall finishes up a research paper.

DEFINITIONS: Patty Salinas looks up vocabulary words.

Homemaking Interest PHS Students

HOMEMAKING CLASS: Mrs. Thompson's Homemaking students are shown planning a menu for one of their class projects.

SCHEDULING: Mrs. Thompson prepares a schedule of activities for her homemaking and child development classes.

ICE WATER: Amy Perea tries out the ice water dispenser.

GOURMET COOK: Margaret Briones checks on a dish she is baking.

AT THE SINK: Michelle Belmont measures water for a recipe she is preparing in homemaking class.

Students in Language Arts Classes learn to express themselves through the writing and speaking of our language. Whether it is by developing a book report, writing complete sentences, or conducting heavy research for a term paper, the experience will benefit them later on.

In the speech and drama classes, opportunity is there for performing. Speech contests, plays, reader's theatre, and many other activities provide outlets for those who wish to enter them, and the behind-the-scenes activities allow for stage hand, make-up and directing experience too.

Homemaking gives both girls and boys a chance to prepare for making their homes more efficient, economical, and attractive after they are on their own.

Thanks to the hard work and dedication of the Parkland Cafeteria Staff, students and faculty have hot nutritious lunches each day. Cafeteria personnel arrive very early on the campus to create the meals. They prepare an average of 508 meals per week, serving approximately 89,739 meals a year.

The custodial staff cleans the seventy-three classrooms each day after Parklands 785 students have finished studying. Thanks to their work while students are on vacation, the floors are usually polished and the school is spotless when we come back.

The security staff works day and night to make sure the campus is safe and protected from vandals or trespassers.

ORGANIZATIONS

Clubs and organizations offer students the chance to further their interests in specific subjects, and to associate with students who have similar interests. Groups such as choir, band and dance and drama give the students chances to perform in public and privately in classroom situations.

Honor societies recognize outstanding student work. The National Honor Society, Thespians, Quill and Scroll, and others include students who have reached the top in their special interest fields. Other clubs provide social outlets, field trips, speakers, and a variety of activities to interest their members.

Second period and fifth period each day room 106 becomes a beehive of activity as the yearbook and newspaper staffs perform their job of recording Parkland's history.

Typing, Writing, Pasting, Cutting, Photographing, Developing, and Printing become the tasks of the moment as the staffs strive to bring order out of confusion, and a newspaper and a Yearbook out of separate stories, headlines, quotes, and captions.

Newspaper editor, Gena Bayler and yearbook editor Bonnie Martinez lead their staffs through the publications deadlines with the help of Mr. Ron Dettman, sponsor.

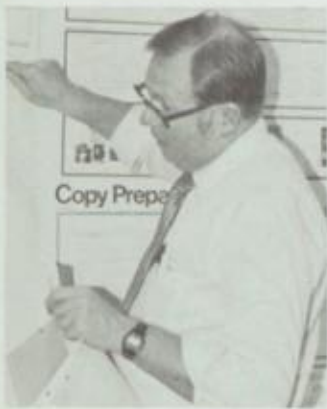

This year's yearbook has the added help of Miss Emilie Madrid, student teacher, who was a valuable addition to the staff's supervision.

Cathy Geroges, sweetheart

Rod Georges, beau

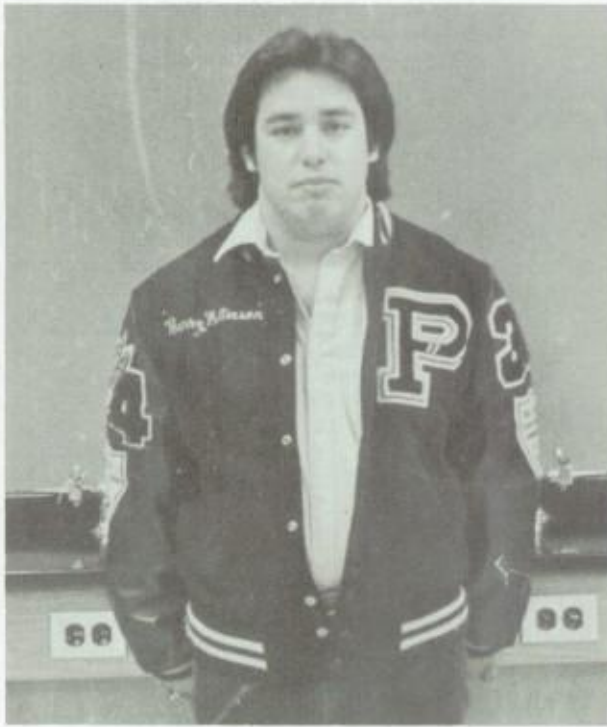

The symbol of the Matador spirit, are the capetwirlers. They perform different types of routines during the school year at the basketball and football pep rallies.

Monica Baughman was named captain of the capetwirling squad this year. She has been very active while attending Parkland. She was on the yearbook staff, student council, named capes sweetheart, and her senior year captain.

The capetwirlers practiced very hard in order to please the student body during pep rallies and the audience during halftime at the football games. They represent out school in parades and other competitions for the Ysleta schools. They also make appearances with the band.

OEA (Office Education Association) is a club for students who are enrolled in Vocational Office Education

The club provide activities for all of the students. There are many fund-raising activities such as candy sales, car washes, gobblegrams, mistletoe, spirit links, and fare well grams.

Students elect officers who are in charge of the planning and running of the year's activities. Guest speakers, and field trips dot the year and there are special events at Christmas.

In February, students enter area VOE contests, and if they win, advance to state VOE contests.

OFFICERS: Junior OEA Officers take time out for a group photo.

Home Economics Cooperative Training programs help students prepare for careers in the food-service areas and careers related to the home economics fields.

Through HECE, students have a chance to get on-the-job training as well as a jump on the job market.

The students in HECE hold an annual employer-employee banquet to honor the businessmen and women in the El Paso area who provide them the opportunity to learn their skills and earn money while getting their high school education at the same time.

LITERARY

The poems and art work and essays presented in this section represent the thoughts and feelings of Matadors. We have tried to include as many works as possible by different students to enable a cross-section of students to be represented here. Although Parkland does not yet have a literary magazine, here is a permanent memory of the works of your fellow students.

Special thanks to the following members of the Creative Writing Class who helped make the choices of selections: Terry Daniels, Laurie Hollenbach, and Christine Szeredy.

YOU

by Sharon D. McBride

You picked me up and fixed my wing,
You helped me laugh; You let me sing,
You keep me warm, when I am cold,
When I'm scared, it's you who's bold.

And so I feel I have to say,
I love you more with each new day,
So, please don't leave me, never go,
For I depend on you, you know.

INSIDE

by Robert Rivera

When the sun goes down
And our inner selves come out,
Then we look into our deepest thoughts,
And wonder what life's all about.

I WATCH

by Laurie Hollenbach

I watch the clouds float over the mountains.
I think how free they are,
They haven't a care in the world.

I watch the rain pouring down.
Each drop splattering into ever-growing puddles,
Then running in little rivulets into the street.

THE MAN IN MY LIFE

by Cyd Ballard

There is a man in my life who is warm and loving. He is caring, kind and giving. He is everything you would want a man to be.

He is tall, dark, and very good looking. A gentleman to the tee. He has not won any wars, or received any great honors. He does not have fame or glory, nor does he have all the riches in the world.

He's a teacher, you see. All he has is the love for life and the compassion to be happy, healthy and loving. He has no great feel for the stock markets or Swiss bank accounts, but a feel for sensitivity.

Yes, he is a simple, caring, giving man. The warmth and love he brings to people cannot be kept in the world's largest bank vaults. Laughter and love mean more to him than all the gold and silver in the world.

God has blessed this man. Not with fame and riches, or with a big house and lots of cars. But with caring green eyes, and with a heart "as big as Texas".

He is as loving and caring as God, Himself. His sensitivity overwhelms me. This man is not God, but in my eyes, he comes very close.

This man is everything you would want in a man, and then some. You would think that such a perfect man would have no faults. But this man has one fault. That is that he does not belong to me, but to the woman who wears his ring, My mother.

SUNSET

by Christine Szeready

I watched the sunset
As it drew the color
from the sky
And made it fade.
I wondered
If someone would ever take something from me,
And make it fade too.

I wonder still.

HAIKU

by Christine Szeready

Pretty lifeless dolls
Amuse many little girls,
Bring them happiness.

MARTIN
DANIEL

I watch the sun rise in the east.
Watch it light my world,
Crating beautiful shades of orange as it sets.

I watch the stars shine at night.
I listen as the wind whistles,
And wish I could ride it up to meet them.

HOW I FEEL

by Vita E. Arindunque

Being a young lady, I have a lot of different feelings that many people can't understand. I suppose it is because I hardly understand myself sometimes. If I could figure myself out, maybe other people could also.

As a teenager, I always hear that I don't know what is best for me because I'm still too young. I want to be able to make my own decisions without someone telling me whether it's right or wrong. I want to learn by my own mistakes. By learning from my own mistakes, I can decide how I want my life to be.

As of now, I find myself feeling locked in and wanting more freedom. Everyone is always telling me how I should run my life. I believe that I should be able to decide how my life should be since I'm going to be the one living it. I wouldn't mind guidance, but as for my parents, they want my life to be how they want it. They don't include my wants and needs in the life they want me to live.

I understand that my parents are trying to do what they think is best for me, but I want to be able to experience some other feelings, rather than just feeling protected. This makes me feel over-protected. This also helps my lack of self-confidence. I can never feel I'm doing anything right without my parents' permission or approval. I don't have the feeling that I have accomplished something on my own.

I want to change these feelings I have by trying to be more independent. Participating in school activities such as flags helps me feel more confident about myself. Perhaps in the future, I will be able to feel the excitement of accomplishing something on my own, and to have more faith in myself as a person.

MAGIC

by Louise Wiedel

I know what magic is.

Do you? Of course.

You showed me. Magic is everywhere

Waiting to be wondered at,

To be let into our hearts and minds.

It's in the flowers, their delicate color;

The music, lilting, lifting up our spirits;

The rainbow, its dazzle brightening the world.

Magic is real, waiting to show itself to those willing to see.

We've seen! We know the truth.

And deep down inside us

the magic sings!

FOREVER FRIENDS

by Brenda Vincent

Friendship is like . . .

An unspoken word

A gentle touch

Or quiet understanding

Of what is to be

Between you and me.

Sometimes quarrels

Forever laughs

Needing each other

When things happen too fast.

Always there to reassure or smile,

Telling you everything

Will work out in a while.

Sharing our hopes and dreams

Knowing that this will someday end,

But until then we'll be . . .

Forever friends.

WHAT HAPPINESS MEANS TO ME

by EDWIN CARTAGENA

I feel that happiness is the best feeling one could ever have. Happiness is a feeling that everyone is trying to capture every second of the day. God was so kind when He created a feeling that makes people feel so warm inside their hearts.

There are many reasons for happiness to me. I feel very good inside when I know I have put forth my best effort in order to succeed at something, and then do succeed.

The feeling of happiness, or joy, is simply the best feeling there can be. A cause for joy could be when a new life is brought into the world. Imagine that. A boy or girl is alive because of God, you, and your partner.

Here to me are the most important reasons for feeling happy. Nothing compares to them. The first is knowing that you love and care for someone and that that someone has the same feelings of love in return. You can be happy if that person shares love with you to the fullest degree of his or her heart, mind, and especially soul.

Another and perhaps the far greatest feeling of happiness comes from knowing that you need Him to guide you in your journey through life, that your heart is filled with the love of Jesus Christ.

I give myself to you.
The dewdrops of my tears
The thorns of my conscience
The green of my envy
The red of my passion
The softness of my love
The perfume of romance.

My soul embodied
In a rose.

Christine Szereby

WONDERING

by Nancy Glarza

I wonder if he ever thinks of how things used to be.

I wonder if he still remembers, how much he meant to me.

I wonder if he ever thinks of things we've said and done.

I wonder if he ever regrets having gone out on his own.

I wonder if he ever looks back on special times we'd shared, him go,

I wonder if he remembers how much he once really cared.

I wonder if he remembers the way only he could make me feel,

I wonder if he knew the my love for him was real.

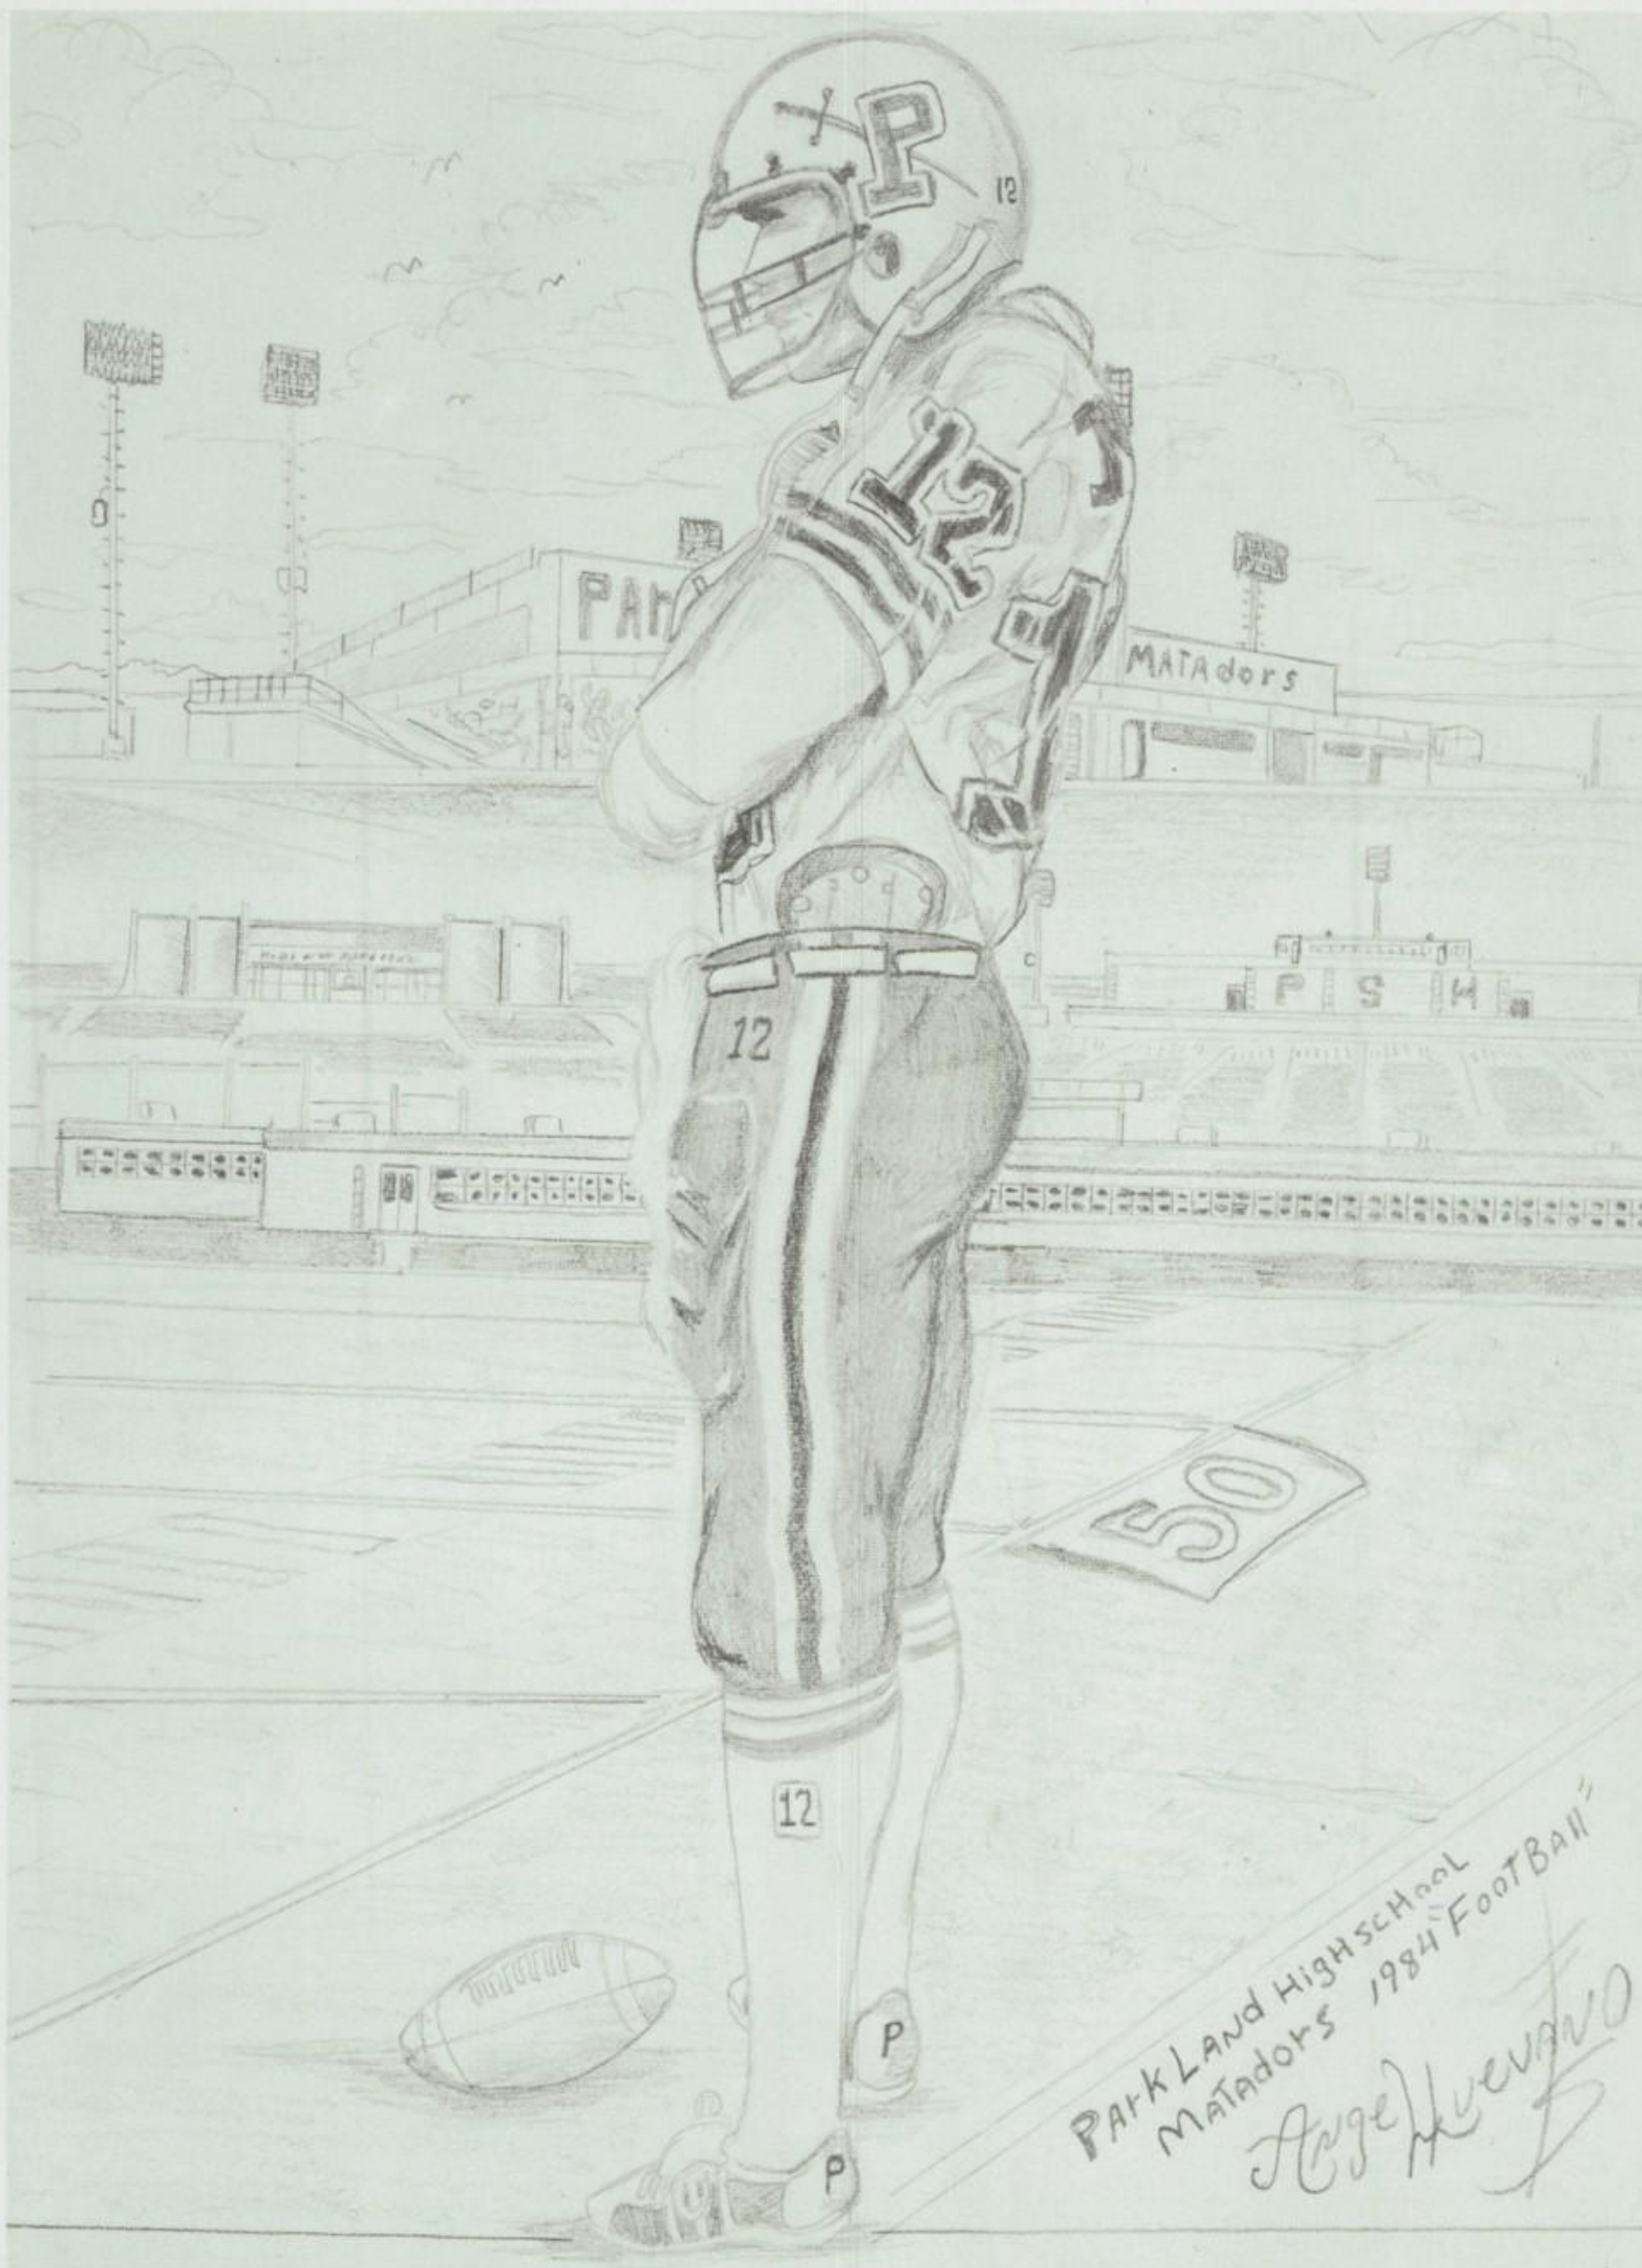

I wonder if he knows how much it hurt to let

I wonder if he knows all the things I wanted him to know.

I wonder if, like me, he remembers every little thing,

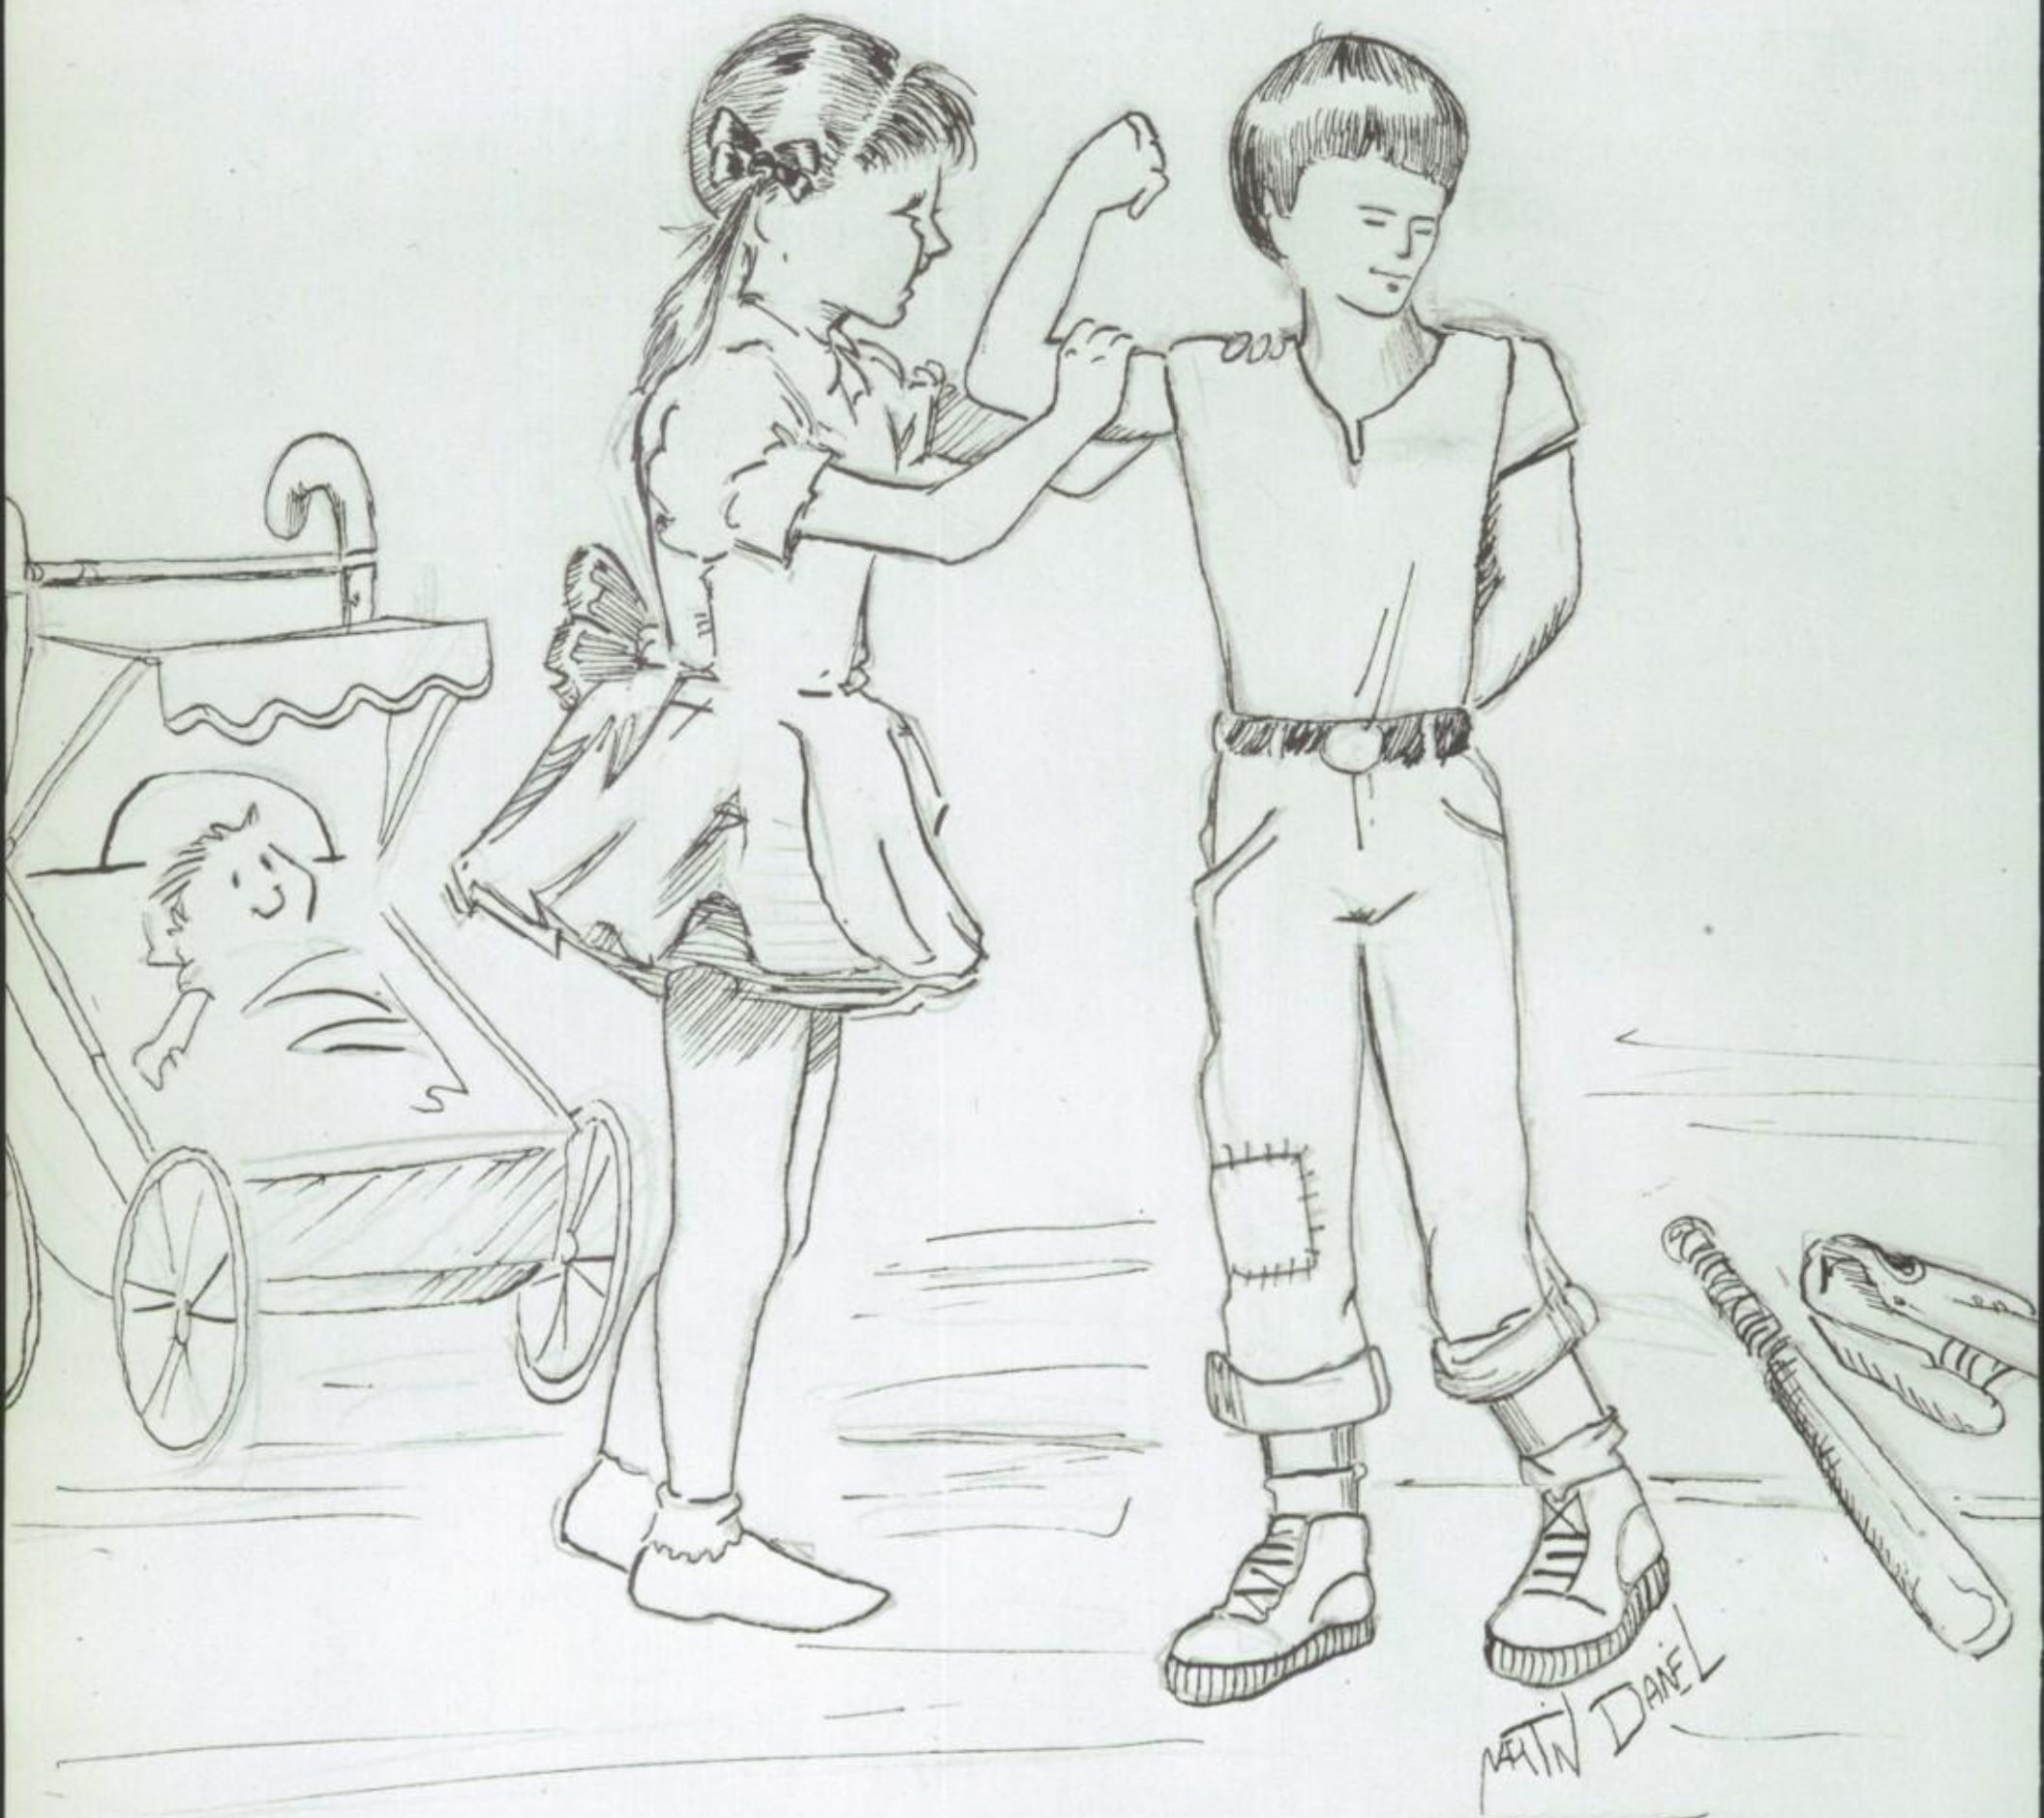

And I wonder if he wonders if I'm ever wondering.

A FRIEND

by Cyd Ballard

A friend is a person who believes in you, even when you don't.
A friend is always caring and loving even when you do something wrong.
A friend is the person who picks you up when you fall and brushes the dirt off of you.
A friend is the person who pats you on the back whether you've won or lost.
A friend is the person who will go to the ends of the world to make you happy.
A friend is one of the world's most beautiful and priceless treasures.
A friend is the person you sometimes unmeaningly hurt, but is still your friend.
A friend is the person who will laugh with you and will cry with you.
A friend is the person you care so much about that sometimes you forget to tell him.
A friend is the person who is with you through the good and the bad.
A friend is the person who will be there to see you through hard times.
A friend is the warm and delightfully beautiful person that I have found in you.

A WEDDING RING

by Terry Daniels

A wedding ring is made into a circle,
A circle being as endless as love is endless
It is made of gold
Gold being as rich as love is rich.
Crowned with a diamond
A diamond being as beautiful and radiant as love is beautiful and radiant.
Placed on the finger to represent a promised relationship.

THOUGHTS OF YOU

by Nancy Galarza

I can't clear my thoughts of you
Don't you know just what you do—to me
You never let me be.

Holding on to every hope
Knowing that I just can't cope—with reality
Dreaming's the thing for me.

All night long and all day
I try to turn my thoughts away—from you
So thoughts force themselves through.

With a power of their own
They don't leave me alone—the tears fall
I don't want to think at all.

I'm no longer in control
Do thoughts have their own soul—and heart?
My thoughts are tearing me apart.

My thoughts are taking me
To a place you'll never be—a world of my own.
That no one else has known.

Thoughts of you are now returning
Going through my head and burning—leaving ash, residue,
Now I know what thoughts can do.

I AM A FLOWER

by Terry Daniels

I am the "Yellow Rose of Texas." At least that's what they call me. They say, "Now there is a beautiful flower with a fine Texas accent."

But I consider myself an average, everyday flower, and I just sit in the flower bed among my friends.

There are drawbacks being a flower. For instance, more flowers die from starvation than humans in a year. We loathe the thought of having wilted petals or, in human terms, non-behaving hair. And being pruned is hardly fun, I can assure you. I especially despise bees, those pesky insects.

There are a few things we flowers like, such as being watered properly. Some children just love to spray the hose at full force, however, bending us painfully backwards.

I particularly like being misted. I love being with my friends, but all good things must come to an end.

It all happened too fast. This idiotic boy came by chanting "She loves me. She loves me not." Well, my chlorophyll ran cold. As I watched, one by one my friends were killed until he ended with "She loves me not."

Then he reached me. I froze. (Which is simple since flowers can't move.) He tried to pick me, but my thorns saved me. Then he cursed under his breath, grabbed me, picked off all my thorns, and then the leaves.

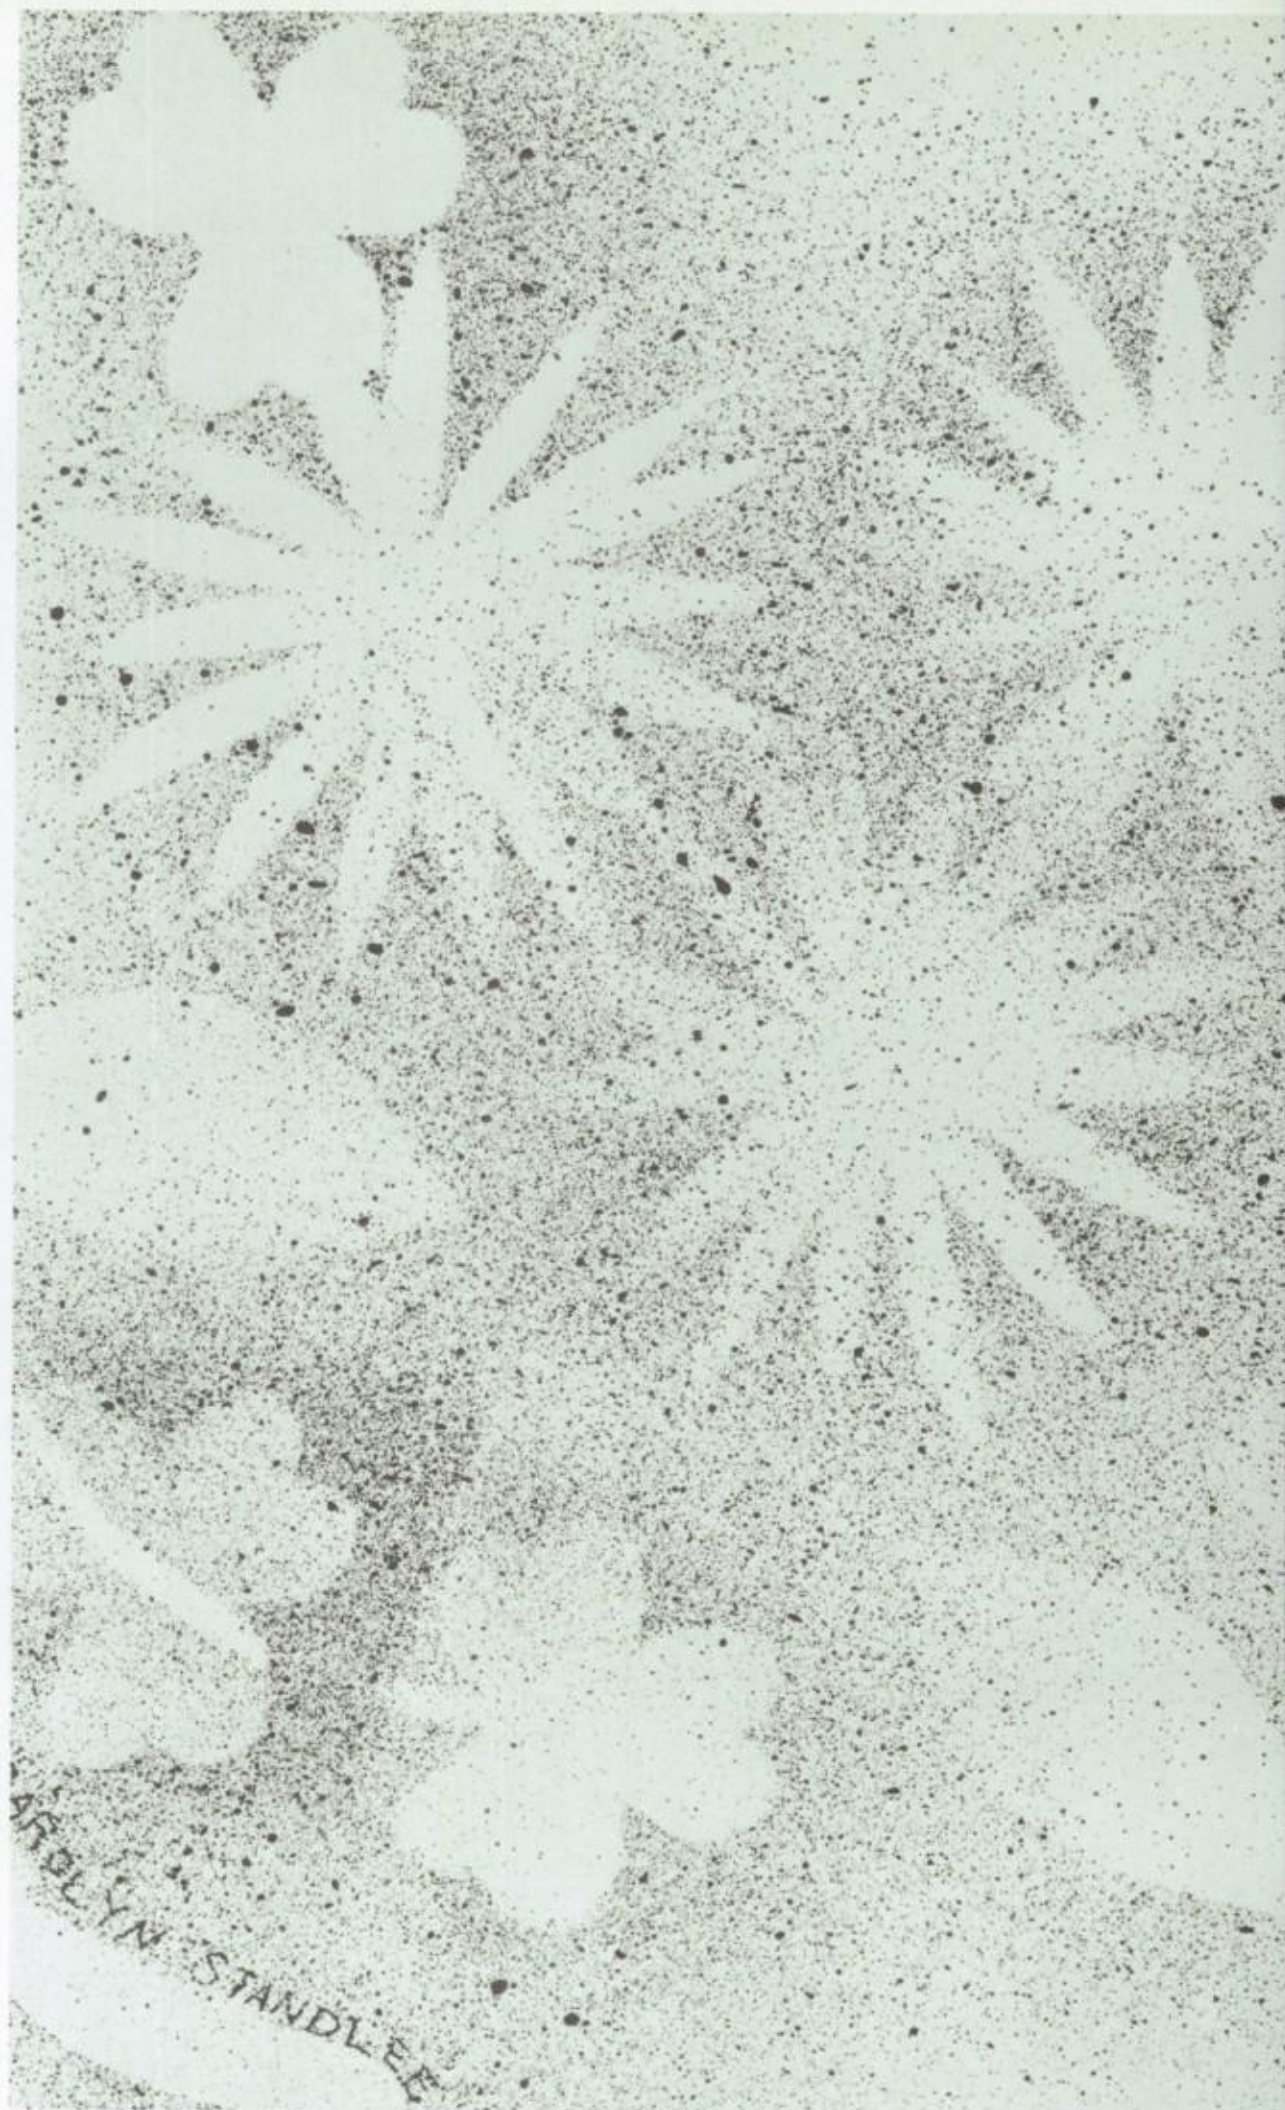

And then I was, amputated. Again, he did the love rhyme, winning at last. At least none of my remaining friends would have to die.

There I lay, bald and amputated. It was all over. My life was at an end. Next I will be raked, sacked, and taken to the landfill.

BLACK AND WHITE

by Brenda Vincent

We come from two different sides,
Held apart by society.
Our morals are strong and sincere,
Yet we don't belong in this world
Where everyone is against us.
They call us weird and unnatural,
But we aren't.
We're in love.
In love in a world of hate
And here the laws of people

Come against us
In a wave of anger and denial,
Trying to destroy what we have.
You're black,
I'm white.
Together we'll fight.

SNOWFLAKES

by Laurie Hollenbach

I watch as the snowflakes fall,
Thinking they are all different.
Millions of individuals, falling from the cold, night sky.

Heavier and heavier,
drifting and drifting.
They are still falling . . .
falling . . . falling . . .
I don't want them to stop.
But they will.
The sun will shine,
The snow will melt,
And all will be lost.

MY FEELING FOR YOU

by Charity Cook

I worry
cause I care,
I care,
cause I love you,
I love you,
cause you are mine,
You are mine,
cause I want you.
I want you,
cause you are a friend.
and I never had a friend like you.
I will never let a friend that cares
so much go without good reason.
You are always in my heart,
Forever.

GOING WITH A GUY

by Anita Latham

When you're going with a guy that calls every day
a day will come
when he will say
I promise to call the next day
so you sit and wait for a call he promised to make hours pass
and you start think he doesn't care
and he found someone new you waited a whole day
to find he had to say
I was busy all day!

The Final Farewell: Dedicated to the Senior Class

Dear ———

We have been through much together!

The Learning, the friendship,

Victory, defeat,

Happiness, and Sorrow.

It seems to have been forever, and yet

It also seems to be over too soon.

Relations have been made to last a lifetime!

It is distressing to think that some of you I will-

Never see again.

I have trusted you, my friends.

I have shared myself,

And we have grown together!

It will be hard to say goodbye.

Yet, goodbye seems to be our path.

We are a group now, a unified body,

Yet tomorrow, we will disperse.

Some will pursue further knowledge in college,

Others take jobs.

Many will marry and become parents.

I only wish you success in your futures!

I hope you will remember,

The times that were shared,

The lessons learned,

The Friends.

When things seem depressing, remember youth,

Remember these days. Be happy.

The world is large and forboding; Yet it is ours to take now.

I hope that we, the unified group now,

Would seize that opportunity.

Take the chance, yet remember ourselves.

We are the future.

Have pride in ourselves—We are important!

Go forth and succeed.

Always—Good Luck!

And Remember,

I Love you!

Signed

CHRISTINE SZEREDY

PARKLAND HIGH SCHOOL
DECEMBER 11, 1983

Christine Szeredy uses her outstanding voice in the Parkland High School choir and the All-Region Choir, where she is seated as fifth chair, second soprano. For her musical talents, Christine also earned two first division medals in solo and ensemble competitions last year.

In addition to her musical accomplishments, Christine also has demonstrated her scholastic abilities as a National Merit Semifinalist and as one of the top five students in her class this year and during her freshman year.

The talented student is involved in many activities and serves as Art Club president, National Honor Society secretary and is a member of the Library Club. She was selected to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Award for American History, participated in modern dance and served as the Foreign Language Club secretary last year.

Christine received a scholarship from UT Austin to participate in an honors program last summer. She studied education, marketing and physics. Indicative of her interest in academics, Christine lists her favorite subjects as calculus, government, physics and creative writing. She also enjoys reading historical novels.

In her spare time, she actively tutors students in the Ysleta Independent School District.

Christine would like to return to UT Austin next year to study special education and work toward receiving certification in learning disabilities.

Born in Paris, France, Christine has seen a lot of the world having lived in countries such as Italy, Germany and Thailand. Her military family moved to El Paso two years ago, but Christine hopes to return someday to visit all the places she has lived. She is the daughter of James K. and Ann Marie Szeredy and has one brother, Jimmy.

Mats Learn Vocational Skills

PLUMBING: Gary Vasquez and Jimmy Theriault cut threads on a piece of pipe under the supervision of their instructor at the Ysleta Vocational High School.

CONSULTATION: Joe Esparza and Gary Vasquez discuss a project.

DRAFTING: Mike Gardulla gets some advice from his teacher in Vocational Drafting Class.

Many students find the trades enticing to them. And to get a head start in trades and skilled professions, the Ysleta District offers a variety of Vocational classes held at Vocational High School.

Students board the bus early each morning and spend a half day at Vocational and then return to Parkland for their basic classes such as English and Math.

Mr. Gabriel Bouche is vocational counselor for Parkland. He advises and tests students to try to put them in fields for which their interests and skills are compatible.

A wide variety of class offerings are available. Students can study every phase of home construction, horticulture, appliance and machine as well as auto repair. Girls take part in these programs as well as cosmetology.

HOT LINE: Joe Esparza tests an electrical circuit as a part of his training at Vocational High School.

GRAPHIC ARTS: Larry Cox learns the graphics business.

Potpourri!

On these pages we have attempted to catch some of the activities in which Parkland students participate throughout the year. Dancing in Christmas Programs, singing in choir, marching with the band at homecoming all provide an outlet for Matadors.

Science experiments, library research, and just plain studying take up the time of quite a few students, as do homework, classwork, and most of all, FUN!

Academic Achievement, Seasons

NHS INIATE: Mr. Crow Congratualtes a new NHS member.

INDUCTION: NHS members look on as Mr. Crow speaks to new National Honor Society members.

RESPECT: Students bow their heads for Lori Watson's benediction.

In December the National Honor Society inducted new members and the musical and performing groups presented the annual Christmas Program, making the season a truly festive one for the students and parents.

CHORAL TRIBUTE: Mr. Gene Shirley leads the Matador choir at the NHS Induction.

THE CANDLE FOR SCHOLARSHIP: Delray Peebles lights one of the National Honor Society symbolic candles.

Bring Programs, Assemblies

DASHING THROUGH THE HALLS: Choir members serenaded the classrooms during the final day before Christmas vacation.

DANCING AT CHRISTMAS: Michelle Layne performs to the music of the choir at Christmas.

GRACING THE SEASON: Gena Bayler exhibits grace and beauty on her interpretation of the Choir's music.

DEAR SANTA: Albert Lozano shares his Christmas spirit.

SANTA'S HELPER?: Mr. Ellis dons his seasonal costume.

Reserved For My Special Friends' Signatures

Kim,

This has been one hell of a year for us,
I mean we had so much fun. Remember the time we got wasted, remember that.
I'm sure you do. Well, after you leave I won't have anyone to drink with, so if I call you up crying, we'll just together one the phone n.r. Kim this has been one of my happiest and saddest years I was happy because we were good friends, and still are,
and sad because you got married, not that I didn't want you to, but I was so happy it made me sad. But enough of the mushy stuff. Just take care, and I hope you will always be happy, because you sure deserve
it. Stay sweet.

Reserved For My Special Friends' Signatures

Kim,

This past year had alot of ups and downs. I hope we go up from here. We've gotten to be alot closer and I hope we stay that way! You take good care of yourself and whenever you need me just write 😊 I would say call but I understand your situation! (HA HA) You & Leo take things one step at a time, and don't you ever worry about little things cause he's all yours now and noone can change that! Take Care Kim! I'm gonna miss you!

Love,

Nasty girls are all so fine,
Nasty girls will blow your mind.

Cabbage Patches to Concerts,

NOT SO SHORT: Cindy Givens gets her hair cut.

CRAMMING: Betty Holman, Lynda Lang, Michael Morales, Shelly Seward study for their semester exams.

FINDS A HOME: A little lost Cabbage Patch Doll found a home with Sheila Miles.

HELLO?: Charlene Camacho answers the pay phone near the lobby.

During the year all kinds of activities held the Interest of Parkland students. Demonstrations in classes, studying in the cafeteria, talking on the phone to friends and family, becoming the proud possessor of a Cabbage Patch Doll, or finding an interesting book in the library, all added to the memories we will take with us when we leave school very soon.

SOLID COMFORT: Tina Volk seems to have found a good chair for studying: a bean Bag Chair in the library.

Matador Interests Are Varied

Concerts, concerts, concerts! Whenever a group of musicians came to perform, Parkland students were there. Whether it was ZZ Top, Def Leppard, Kizz, Riot, Vandenburg, Quiet Riot, or Kenny Rogers, Several students arrived at Parkland the next day with T-Shirts or other remembrances to share with friends.

All types of music were popular. Country fans, rockers, new wave and punk drew their share of the student body.

TEXAS ROCKERS: Billy Givens and Dusty Hill of ZZ TOP entertain the crowd at the Pan American Center.

BALLAD: Billy Givens performs a ballad.

THE BEAT GOES ON: Frank Beard, ZZ TOP Drummer uses plenty of equipment to get the proper sound.

PRECISION: Groups like ZZ TOP go through all kinds of precise movements to please their audiences.

Beauty Contest Culminates Weeks

EMCEES: Kim McClure, Rudy Martinez and Marion Almeida.

WAITING NERVOUSLY: Contestants Carol Camacho, Lulu Fierro, Michelle Seward, Donna Dungan and Gena Bayler wait to go on stage.

CONGRATULATION: Lulu Fierro hugs Carol Camacho upon learning they were finalists.

BACKSTAGE: Ruben Rubert brings ballots to be counted.

Of Practice and Preparation

CAPETWIRLERS: Deanna Snyder and Evelyn Galarza perform a routine.

SOLO: Jill Charron pleased the crowd with her dance.

ROUTINE: One of the capetwirlers performs a pass with the cape.

PERFORMING GROUP: Members of Salta Nova entertain the crowd with their catchy dance number.

Staff Appreciates Help, Understanding

SPRING STAFFERS: Shown above are some of the students who joined the yearbook staff after the end of first semester and those hearty few who stayed with it throughout the entire year. Left to right: Sheila Miles, Rod Georges, Monica Baughman, Tricia McLean, Kim Hall, Barry Patterson, Bonnie Martinez, Back Row: Edwin Cartagena, Donna Dungan, Gary Wright, Elsa Falcon, Ruben Rubert, and Bobby Broadstreet. Insert: Rudy Martinez. Not Shown: Tony Narvaez.

So we have come to the end of another school year. And we have made friends along the way with our fellow students, with some of our teachers and administrators, and even with ourselves.

We have built dreams and sometimes seen them crumble. We have hoped and faced success. We have made something of ourselves which no one else can have. Each individual accomplishment and each effort which was part of a team effort is uniquely our own, to be treasured for years to come.

The yearbook staff went through many of the same trials and tribulations that everyone goes through. We experienced the thrill of making that first print in the darkroom; the agony of lost pictures and copy that didn't fit. We succeeded sometimes, failed others. But we tried to build on our failures, to put a little extra effort into the next attempt.

Our theme for this yearbook was

"Memories of Yesterday and Dreams of Tomorrow." We have attempted to bring you some of both. We hope the book pleases you. We sincerely tried to make every name and every picture match; to make sure all of your names are spelled correctly; to include many different members of our student body; and to provide as much of the history and drama of this year as possible.

Along the way to completion, a lot of people contributed suggestions, time, and effort to make it a success. We would like to thank some of them at this closing. They include:

The faculty and staff of Parkland for their patience and understanding about deadlines.

Mrs. Donna Smith, Herff Jones Representative who pitched in to help us solve our problems with printing, layout, etc.

Miss. Emilee Madrid, student teacher, who worked with us during the first semester, and who contributed so much to the outcome of this book.

Popular Dry Good Photographers Mrs. Rowena Sampier and Mr. Fred White for their work with the seniors and underclass.

And a number of students who, although they were not on the staff, pitched in anyway to help with photography, and typing, and a lot of other things in general. They include Ruby Martinez and Mark Nelson.

We can't overlook the work of second semester yearbook staffers who took up the slack and helped complete our book on time.

Finally, we thank our sponsor Mr. Ron Dettman for his help and guidance.

We hope you enjoy this edition of the ARENA.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Martinez: Editor

Kim,
Been real nice knowing
you. So you're a married woman now. Hope you have a nice future with Lee. Have a nice summer. Stay sober and stay off drugs.

Friends,
Karen Lauer
